Artist of the Year

Arts Richmond Artist of the Year Competition, 20th June 2026 at Ham House. Arts Richmond has been invited to hold the Artist of the Year 2026 Competition in the National Trust's magnificent 17th century Ham House and its grounds on the banks of the Thames, and we hope our artists will enjoy this generous gesture.

Timetable:

10 am - artists arrive at the main gate of Ham House for registration. If you are a NT member please bring your pass with you to show at the gate (visitor numbers registered help Ham House financially), but don't worry if you are not a member, just give them your name and tell them you are taking part.

Arts Richmond's registration desk will be next to the ticket office, so entry will be smooth. We will provide something for you to display which will identify you as an Arts Richmond member, and we hope to have enough volunteers and signage to direct you around the house and grounds throughout the day.

10.30 am - there will be a briefing and a short talk given by a Ham House representative.

11am - free to take your positions and start work.

2.45pm - completed artworks to be delivered to the Servants' Dining Hall for judging.

3pm - judging by a Ham House representative begins.

3.45pm - Announcement of winner and presentation in the magnificent Great Hall. There will be one winner. Full information/registration details artsrichmond.org.uk/arts-richmond-events

SHOWCOACH

Join us for our annual visit to Chichester Festival Theatre on Tuesday 23rd July to see a performance of My Fair Lady at 2.30pm. Lerner and Loewe's glorious evergreen musical is being performed at Chichester for the first time. Songs such as The Rain in Spain, I Could Have Danced All Night, Wouldn't It Be Lovely and many more along with sparkling dialogue, witty story and gorgeous costumes makes for a perfect musical.

Cockney Eliza Doolittle earns a living selling flowers on the streets of London. Unless she can speak 'proper English' her dream of being a lady in a florist's shop is out of reach. So, when she encounters Henry Higgins, a Professor of Phonetics, she seizes the chance to transform her life!

Higgins blithely takes on a bet to turn this 'squashed cabbage leaf' into a high society paragon. His impulsive wager becomes a journey of discovery for both him and Eliza!

Cost: £81 which includes your ticket and coach fare. There will be time for lunch at the theatre or in the city before the performance. Please sign up as soon as possible as we only have 29 seats: Tickets: <https://artsrichmond.org.uk/showcoach>

Rose Opera Presents Puccini's Manon Lescaut 6th June.

Puccini's breakthrough third opera, Manon Lescaut, is the moment his genius truly catches fire. In its soaring melodies and surging drama, you can already hear the seeds of La Bohème, Tosca and Madama Butterfly; yet this is a masterpiece in its own right.

A passionate tale of love, desire and betrayal, it asks: is Manon fatally drawn to luxury, or is Des Grieux the ultimate romantic, sacrificing everything for love? Performed in the beautiful surroundings of Normansfield Theatre, sung in Italian with full orchestra and chorus, this promises to be another triumph for Rose Opera, following our acclaimed 2024 Tosca and 2025 Cav/Pag double-bill. <https://www.roseopera.co.uk/events>.

Strawberry Hill Community Choir: The theme this term is Songs of the Sea. The Summer Concert will be on Tuesday 7th July at St Mary's Church, Twickenham.

We have room to expand and welcome new members to become part of this. There are no auditions. All you need is a love and enjoyment of making music, commitment and a willingness to be challenged. A mixture of genre, styles and languages. We rehearse on a Tuesday currently in the Hyde Room, York House, Twickenham at 7.15 and the subscription is £85 per term. The summer term started on 14th April.

More information can be found on our website and from here you can arrange to come to a taster session. You will be more than welcome. www.strawberryhillcommunitychoir.org

Join Thames Philharmonic Choir on Saturday 14 June. Opera, Glorious Opera!

Whether it's choruses from the enduringly entertaining Gilbert and Sullivan, wonderful music from Italian composers Puccini and Verdi, or the great English composer Henry Purcell, there's something for everyone in this concert. Solo parts will be sung by our excellent choral scholars; the concert will be conducted by Music Director Harry Bradford and accompanied by Richard Leach.

The performance is at 7.30 pm at All Saints Church, Kingston. Tickets are available from £5 to £24, with concessions for full-time students and under 18s. For full details and to book, go to the TPC website: <https://www.thamesphilharmonicchoir.co.uk/event-details/opera-glorious-opera>

Twickenham Guitar Society presents Emmanuel Sowicz Classical Guitar Recital 13th June 7.00pm. Emmanuel returns to St Mary's with a varied programme of music from Baroque to modern. Covering England, Europe, Japan and South America. Highlights will include favourites from Barrios, Bach and Sor with new music from Alessandro Loro of Italy. An evening of "contemplations" from a prize-winning guitarist at the height of his powers. Join us for another great evening of Guitar at St Mary's Church, Church St, Twickenham TW1 3NJ. Sunday 7 June: Katie Spencer. Back after her memorable 2023 TwickFolk debut, Katie returns with her deep, vibrato voice and outstanding guitar work which reminds many of Bert Jansch. She'll be performing songs from her critically-acclaimed album, What Love Is. Tickets £18 on the door or £15 + booking fee online at wegottickets.com/event/685854

Sunday 14 June: Dave Collins, Simon O'Grady & Tim White. Double-header featuring local acts who've recently released excellent albums. David is a fine singer-songwriter-guitarist and superb storyteller. Simon performs wry, observational songs to a soundscape of his own guitar and Tim's banjo. Tickets £15 on the door or £12 + booking fee online at wegottickets.com/event/692388/

Sunday 21 June: Dave Kelly plus Phil Jones. A welcome return for the blues-meister, who's worked with all the legends on both sides of the Atlantic, and still tours with his own band and with Paul Jones. Support act Phil Jones is fondly remembered for his lengthy stint with Hatful of Rain and has more recently written and performed theatre-based song cycles. Tickets £15 on the door or £12 + booking fee online at wegottickets.com/event/685847/.

Sunday 28 June: Singers' night. A special opportunity to tread TwickFolk's stage, plug in and entertain us with a pair of songs, tunes or poems. Just £5 on the door.

Handmade Workshops

15th June Try Knitting: at the Railway Teddington, 3 Victoria Rd, Teddington TW11 0BB. Could 2026 be the year you finally learn to knit? Why not come along to our 2-hour taster session and have a try at this wonderful craft? Be warned, though – it's seriously addictive! In this introductory session, we'll teach you the knit stitch, then when you feel ready for more, we can move onto purl stitch, together with casting on and casting off. For full details and to book your place please go to handmadeworkshops.co.uk/try-knitting/.

16th June Try Crochet: Fancy learning a new skill? Think you'd like to have a go at crochet? Why not come along to our 2-hour taster workshop and give it a try?

In this introductory session, we'll take you through the first steps of crochet and teach you how to hold the hook and yarn and make chain, double, half-treble and treble crochet stitches. We'll also show you a variety of different yarns and talk about different projects you could move on to with just a little more tuition and practice.

For full details and to book your place please go handmadeworkshops.co.uk/try-crochet-3/.

Museums:

The Twickenham Museum

Even their location at 25 The Embankment is a part of local history. It is a charming Grade 2 listed waterman's cottage dating back to circa 1720. It stands adjacent to the Parish Church of St Mary the Virgin. The museum currently has a display featuring the painter JMW Turner and South-west London at part of the 250th anniversary celebrations of his birth. Turner lived locally at Brentford, Isleworth, Hammersmith and Twickenham. Museum Open: Fri 11-3pm, Sat 11-3pm and Sun 2-4pm.

The museum is currently looking for volunteers to work in the afternoons on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays. If you are interested in working with the public, please email the House Manager for further details or housemanager@twickenham-museum.org.uk

The Museum of Richmond

THREADS THROUGH TIME

Community Quilts in Richmond

An exhibition at the Museum of Richmond
April to September 2026
FREE ENTRY

Step into the Museum of Richmond to explore a vibrant collection of quilts mainly created for—and by—our local community. For the first time, these evocative pieces are gathered in one place, combining art and memories.

-  The Covid Community Quilt: A moving reflection on life under lockdown in Richmond.
-  The UKAIDS Memorial Quilt (Panel 5): Commemorating lives lost to AIDS, including local icon Freddie Mercury.
-  House Block: A powerful response to homelessness, using surprising contemporary materials.
-  Tradition and Memory: From historic patchwork and quilted clothing to a quilt made from upcycled neckties.
-  Ready to find your own creative spark? Pick up our exhibition booklet or join us for a series of workshops, talks, and events designed to help you release your creativity.

To find out more about related events and workshops, scan the QR code or visit: www.museumofrichmond.com/threads.
Events include: Patchwork and Quilting workshop using neck ties with Creative Quilting on Saturday 4 July 2026
TALK and DEMONSTRATION by Paula Doyle on Thursday 10 September 2026

Make Our Garden Grow

Donna Lennard Soprano
Gavin Roberts Piano & organ
Andrew Griffiths Conductor

Our summer programme focuses on the natural world. We celebrate all things pastoral in a delicious series of anthems, part songs and folk songs, including music by Bernstein, Hadley, Holst, Howells, Parry, Stanford, and Dowland in his 400th anniversary year. Meanwhile Cecilia McDowall's haunting cantata The Ice is Listening, inspired by accounts of frost fairs on the River Thames, reminds us of nature's fragile balance—a theme amplified by Raymond Yiu's rich song cycle The Earth and Every Common Sight.

Andrew Griffiths is renowned for his vibrant, imaginative and eclectic programming and his inspirational work with professional and amateur groups alike. He regularly broadcasts and records with the BBC Singers, and has conducted the BBC Symphony Chorus, New London Chamber Choir and Dartington Summer School choirs. In the world of opera, he has conducted productions for The Royal Opera, Royal Ballet, Welsh National Opera and Opera North, and is currently Head Coach at the National Opera Studio. He also sings as a member of the Gramophone Award-winning vocal consort Stile Antico.

Founded in 1950, Kingston Choral Society (KCS) numbers over 100 enthusiastic singers from Kingston and its environs. The choir has won a reputation for high standards and adventurous programming, mixing popular classics with lesser-known gems. Recent performances include a spectacular Venetian Vespers, featuring music by Monteverdi and his contemporaries.

New members welcome
 If you enjoy singing, come along to a rehearsal, or join one of our annual Come & Sing events, to see if you would like to join us. We rehearse at The Hollyfield School, Surbiton, on Thursday evenings (term-time only) from 8-10pm. A recent guest described us as "Friendly, fun, & the singing was exhilarating!".

The choir's four annual concerts include at least two with professional orchestras and celebrated soloists. With the aim of delighting and inspiring our audiences, KCS presents music by beloved composers such as Bach, Mozart, Mendelssohn, Brahms and Purcell alongside less familiar and new repertoire, which in recent seasons has included Cecilia McDowall's Da Vinci Requiem and works by Barber, Britten, Dyson, Gatti, Lauridsen and Tavener.

For more details contact the Membership Secretary on 020 8942 2275 or email join@kingstonchoralsociety.org.uk or visit www.kingstonchoralsociety.org.uk

Most concerts are within the Royal Borough, but in recent years KCS has performed Bach's St John Passion and B Minor Mass, Haydn's Creation, Verdi's Requiem, Brahms' A German Requiem and Poulenc's Gloria at Cadogan Hall.

KCS gratefully acknowledges the financial support of the Humphrey Richardson Taylor Charitable Trust.
