November Literature Festival

The Arts Richmond Literature Festival is back this November with a fantastic new line-up. At the Exchange Twickenham and Duke Street Church Richmond

Wednesday 4th November: Award-winning Elly Griffiths will be talking about her crime writing, focusing on her latest DI Ali Dawson title, The Killing Time.

Wednesday 11th November: Alwyn Turner, historian and writer, explores Britain's trauma, resilience and identity in A Shellshocked Nation: Britain between the Wars.

Monday 16th November: As part of this year's book festival, we are delighted to be joined by Carol Kirkwood. Weather presenter turned novelist Carol Kirkwood talks about early starts, her 28 years presenting the BBC Breakfast weather forecast and her new book, The Christmas Invitation. Carol will be appearing at Duke Street Richmond on Monday 16th November at 7.30pm.

Wednesday 18th November: Andrew Lownie will be discussing privilege, scandal and royal life in his Sunday Times bestseller, Entitled: The Rise and Fall of the House of York.

Wednesday 25th November: The world-renowned cellist, Julian Lloyd Webber, recounts his family and artistic life in his fascinating autobiography, Bows and Arrows.

There will be a chance after each talk to be part of a Q&A, and our authors will be more than happy to sign their books for you after the presentation.

SHOWCOACH REVIEW

For our September trip we visited the famous Whitchurch Silk Mill and Winchester Cathedral. This was a very successful day and even the sun shone as well.

After welcoming tea and coffee at the Mill we were given a very thorough and meaty tour of the Mill. Our guides were very knowledgeable giving us a great deal information about the spinning and weaving processes. This is the only remaining Silk Mill in operation within the UK. We weren't able to see the Watermill working as the water levels are still too low.

After our tour we had a delicious lunch at the Mill House. Everything is prepared in-house and the staff were very helpful. We then had time to explore the gardens, watch the trout in the famous Chalk Stream and visit the small but delightful gift shop.

Then on to Winchester for our very special visit to the Cathedral to see "Wild, Festival of Flowers and Nature" which was just stunning. We were able to explore all the areas of the Nave with their numerous and greatly varied types of displays. Music was playing and there were dancers moving amongst us adorned with flowers! It really was the most incredible exhibition to see and be part of. It takes place only once every 4 years and runs for just a week. We were so lucky to be there for the first day of the event!

Everyone agreed this part had made the day even more special.

Showcoach News

Teddington Theatre Club

We Anchor in Hope by Anna Jordan Tue 3 Nov - Sat 7 Nov

2026. All over London, pubs are becoming flats. Tomorrow The Anchor closes for good. It's the end of an era, but Kenny and the gang are going out with a bang. There's a blow-up sheep, karaoke and a lot of Campari. There are secrets and grudges and forgotten dreams. As the front doors are locked and the bar is drunk dry, there's a lot more to lose than just a pub. A sharply funny and melancholy play by Anna Jordan, the award-winning writer of 2024 TTC hit Pop Music. She's been a writer on TV's Succession, Killing Eve and One Day. An amateur production by arrangement with Nick Hern Books. Recommended for ages 16+. Book: www.teddingtontheatreclub.org.uk/production/we-anchor-hope

Robin Hood By Josh Clarke. A traditional family pantomime.

Sat 28 Nov - Sun 6 Dec 2026. Grab your bow and arrow and prepare for a riotous romp through Sherwood Forest as Robin Hood leaps onto the Hampton Hill stage in a brand new, laugh out loud pantomime adventure. The wicked Sheriff is squeezing every last penny from the poor townsfolk, but fear not—Robin Hood and his delightfully hopeless band of Merry Men are on a mission to steal back the gold, save the day, and maybe even stumble into a little romance along the way. Expect heroic mishaps, villainous cackles, and more "He's behind you!" moments than you can count. Performance times:

Saturday 28 & Sunday 29 November at 2.00 pm & 6.30 pm

Tuesday 1 to Friday 4 December at 7.30 pm

Saturday 5 December at 2.00 pm & 6.30 pm

Sunday 6 December at 2.00 pm

Relaxed Performance Sunday 29 November 2.00 pm

Technical changes (such as adjustments to light and sound effects) are made for those with sensory sensitivities. These performances also allow for noise and movement in the auditorium, a chill-out space for anyone who may need time away from the performance, and re-entry when needed.

Ticket prices Standard £20. Children & Students £15 www.teddingtontheatreclub.org.uk/production/robin-hood

HSO concert in November 2026. This season, audiences are invited to experience one of the most enchanting works in the classical repertoire in an entirely new light — quite literally. Candlelight: A Tribute to Scheherazade brings Nikolai Rimsky-Korsakov's sweeping orchestral suite to St Mary's Church in Osterley, Isleworth, illuminated by the warm glow of hundreds of candles, offering a musical journey through the tales of One Thousand and One Nights. Inspired by the legendary storyteller who wove nightly tales to save her life, Scheherazade unfolds through four vivid movements — from the roar of The Sea and Sinbad's Ship to the whirlwind finale of Festival at Baghdad. Performed live by local ensemble 'Hounslow Symphony Orchestra', the concert transforms this beloved symphonic poem into a spellbinding, sensory experience unlike a traditional concert hall performance. Saturday 14th November. Doors 6:30pm, Concert 7:00pm. Bar will be open! St Mary's Church, Osterley Rd, Isleworth TW7 4PW. Tickets on the door or in advance from www.hounslow-symphony.org.uk/whatson.

In Flagrante Choir: We're a friendly local choir which rehearses on Tuesday evenings, 7.30 - 9.30pm, at the glorious venue of The Royal Mid-Surrey Golf Club in Richmond www.rmsgc.co.uk in a huge room with a stunning view over the surrounding Arcadian landscape. Singers are still offered the option of joining in through Zoom in case there is a week you are unable to attend in person. In Flagrante Choir singers enjoy a mixture of repertoire old and new - popular songs and seasonal music - following fun vocal warm-ups to improve singing, posture and breathing techniques. We'd love you to come along and enjoy a couple of hours of singing to the rafters in great company. Under the baton of our brilliant Musical Director, Eamonn O'Dwyer, the choir is now sharpening up our vocal cords again - after a wonderful 10th Anniversary concert this summer - to give another top-notch performance at the choir's winter concert on the evening of Thursday 26 November 2026 at the Royal Mid Surrey Golf Club. Look on our website for more information on the choir and the concert. www.inflagrantechoir.com.

Advent Sunday 29 November 9:30am.

Advent Sunday marks the beginning of the church year, a time when we draw closer to God and each other through the journey from Advent to Christmas and Epiphany. You are warmly invited to join us for our 09:30 Service of Holy Communion, which will include a sequence of readings and choral and instrumental music for the Season of Advent, sung by our Choral Scholars and members of the Elysian Singers.

Strawberry Hill Community Choir: We are now well into rehearsals for Vivaldi's Gloria, L'Estrange's A Season to Sing and a few Christmas carols which will be sung at our Christmas Concert on Tuesday 1st December at St Mary's Church Twickenham. We have room to expand and welcome new members to become part of this. There are no auditions. All you need is a love and enjoyment of making music, commitment and a willingness to be challenged. A mixture of genre, styles and languages. We rehearse on a Tuesday, in the Hyde Room at York House and the subscription is £85 per term. More information can be found on our website and from here you can arrange to come to a taster session. You will be more than welcome. www.strawberryhillcommunitychoir.org.

On Saturday 14 November, this year's cohort of Thames Philharmonic Choir's scholars will give their first recital at St Margaret's Church, Putney Park Lane, SW15 5HU. These termly recitals are always wonderful occasions with the scholars performing solo and together, with TPC Accompanist Richard Leach at the piano. Doors open at 7.00pm for a 7.30pm start with drinks available before and after the concert. No tickets are required but donations are welcome and go to the scholars. For details of this year's scholars and the scheme, go to: www.thamesphilharmonicchoir.co.uk/our-scholars.

Twickfolk Live folk music most Sunday evenings at the Cabbage Patch, 67 London Rd, Twickenham TW1 3DZ. Walking distance from Twickenham railway station and 267, 281, 490 and R68 bus stop.

Sunday 1 November: Johnny Campbell + Charles Hues. Johnny is a fine singer-songwriter and accomplished acoustic guitarist whose narrative songs are steeped in the traditions of the rural north. Support act Charlie Hues crafts intimate and confessional songs. Doors open 7.45, music from 8.00. Tickets £15 on the door or £12 + £1 booking fee online at wegottickets.com/f/20813.

Sunday 15 November: Hunter Muskett. Veteran three-piece acoustic-electric outfit, performing their own material in a unique style straddling folk, blues and Americana. Doors open 7.45, music from 8.00. Tickets £15 on the door or £12 + £1 booking fee online at wegottickets.com/f/20808

Sunday 22 November: Singaround. This month's chance to bring a pair of songs, tunes or poems to the circle, or just pull up a chair and listen. Please note that these singarounds have grown so popular that doors will open at 7.15 and the singing will start at 7.30. Just £5 on the door.

Walks Talks and Courses:

The Arts Society Richmond has a full programme of live/zoom hybrid lectures and visits. Our lecture programme continues on Tuesday 3 November with Joseph Wright of Derby: Casting a Light, given by accredited lecturer Rosalind White. We start the evening with drinks from 6.45pm in Duke Street Church, Duke Street Richmond, TW9 1DH and the lecture begins at 7.30pm. The lecture is always free to members and guests are asked for £5 at the door - and no booking required. Non-members can also watch on Zoom for £7 by emailing us as below. On 2 November we have two visits to the British Museum Money section, one at 10.15 and one at 13.45. Tom Hockenhull, Keeper of Money and Medals at the British Museum, will lead us round two galleries at the Museum. Firstly, the Money Gallery encompassing a history of money (with notes on a history of money and medals at the British Museum), and an introduction to the current temporary display of a hoard from 1066 that the Museum is trying to acquire. Then we will move down to the Ground Floor and to temporary display called "USA250" featuring the Washington Peace Medal. If you wish to join any of our events, please email richmond@theartsociety.uk for further details and when appropriate you will be sent the Zoom link 24 hours in advance. Our website is at www.theartsocietyrichmond.org.uk.

The Queen of Bushy House

By Teddington author Molly Gartland

One house. Two women.
Both determined to endure.

In 1818, Princess Adelaide arrives at Bushy House to marry the Duke of Clarence – a man twice her age, with a mountain of debts and nine illegitimate children.

But the presence of his former companion, the celebrated actress Dorothea Jordan, lingers.

GLORIA

It's incredible to think that Vivaldi's Gloria in D Major (R589) lay forgotten for almost 300 years after his death until a performance in Italy in the 1930s.

Today this glorious piece - full of passion and drama - is universally loved and a Christmas favourite. For this performance, Strawberry Hill Community Choir is accompanied by a string quartet and professional soloists.

A SEASON TO SING (excerpts)

Joanna Forbes L'Estrange's gorgeous composition is a choral re-imagining of Vivaldi's The Four Seasons, composed to mark its 300th anniversary in 2025.

We welcome new singers - get in touch!
