

CONTRIBUTORS

Rhoderick John S. Abellanosa is currently Director of Human Resource Management and Faculty and Staff Development Officer of Sacred Heart School – Ateneo de Cebu. He has master's degrees in Philosophy (2006) and Political Science (2008) from the University of San Carlos. In 2011 he was awarded Graduate Research Fellowship by the Asia Research Institute of the National University of Singapore. He also took audit Theological Studies in the Seminario Mayor de San Carlos. His publications and research interests are in the areas of Political Philosophy, Filipino Philosophy, Religion and Society, and Catholic Social Ethics.

Regletto Aldrich D. Imbong is an assistant professor of philosophy at the University of the Philippines Cebu. He just recently finished his dissertation for the degree Doctor of Philosophy in Philosophy from the University of San Carlos. He has published several articles in international and local journals with special interests in the emancipatory politics of Alain Badiou, Neoliberalism, Critical Pedagogy, Peace Studies, and Maoism. He is the current Vice-President for the Visayas of the Philosophical Association of the Visayas and Mindanao

Jose Conrado A. Estafia is a priest of the Diocese of Talibon (Bohol) and the current Dean of Studies of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Seminary in Tagbilaran City. He earned his Licentiate and Master of Arts in Philosophy (2004) and his Ecclesiastical Doctorate in Philosophy (2011) in the Pontifical Royal University of Santo Tomas, Manila and later obtained his Licentiate and Master of Arts in Theology in the University of Vienna, specializing in Fundamental Theology (2018). Fr. Estafia is a member of Edith Stein Gesellschaft Österreich since 2013.

Daryl Y. Mendoza is Assistant Professor in the Department of Philosophy in the University of San Carlos. He teaches courses in Marxism, Metaphysics, and Contemporary Philosophy to both undergraduate and graduate students in philosophy. He co-authored several textbooks in Ethics and Philosophy of the Human Person, and has published in peer-reviewed journals on the French theorist Jean Baudrillard.

Maria Majorie Purino is an Associate Professor in the Department of Philosophy in the University of San Carlos. She completed her Ph.D. in Philosophy in 2011 in the same institution with a dissertation on “D.T. Suzuki’s Zen Doctrine of No-Mind and Heidegger’s Dasein on Postmodern Being.” Her research interests include Kant, Buddhism, and Heidegger. She currently teaches Ancient Western Philosophy, Indian Philosophy, and Thanatology. She was a recipient of the Sumitomo Foundation – Japan Research Related Grant.

Ryan C. Urbano is an Associate Professor in the College of Arts and Sciences, Cebu Technological University. He obtained his Ph.D. Philosophy (2010) at the University of San Carlos, Cebu City and his M.A. in Applied Ethics (2008) at Utrecht University, The Netherlands and Linkoping University, Sweden. He was a visiting fellow at the Center for Advanced Studies (“Justitia Amplificata”) at Goethe University, Frankfurt am Main, Germany in 2019 and an international fellow for South and Southeast Asia Region of the Austrian-based King Abdullah Bin Abdulaziz International Centre for Interreligious and Intercultural Dialogue (KAICIID). Since 2019, he is a member of the pool of experts of Globethics.net based in Geneva, Switzerland.