

CONTRIBUTORS

Ben Carlo Atim is currently finishing his Ph.D. in Philosophy at the University of Santo Tomas. He holds an MA in Philosophy from the University of the Philippines, Diliman, and graduated AB Philosophy and Communication at Saint Paul Seminary in Cavite. He is an Assistant Professorial Lecturer in the said seminary and the Our Lady of La Salette Seminary (Cavite). He published essays in Philosophy and Theology in Kritike: An Online Journal of Philosophy (UST), Social Ethics Society: Journal of Applied Philosophy, MST Review (Maryhill School of Theology, Manila), Scientia: Journal of Humanities (San Beda University, Manila).

Paolo A. Bolaños is Full Professor of Philosophy, Department of Philosophy, University of Santo Tomas. He is the Founding Editor-in-Chief of Kritike: An Online Journal of Philosophy, and Fellow, Research Center for Culture, Arts, and the Humanities, UST. Among others, he is a member of the Philippine Academy of Philosophical Research (PAPR) and the Philosophical Association of the Philippines (PAP). He is a graduate of the Macquarie University, Australia (Ph.D. in Philosophy) and Brock University, Ontario, Canada (M.A. in Philosophy).

Shierwin Cabunilas is a Lecturer of Philosophy at Saint Francis Xavier Seminary, and Academic Dean at San Pablo Seminary, School of Philosophy, Baguio City, Philippines. He also has a Bachelor of Theology from the Immaculate Conception School of Theology, Vigan City. He earned a Research Master of Philosophy and Ph.D. in Philosophy in KU Leuven, Belgium). He is a member of Research in Political Philosophy Leuven (RIPPLE, Belgium), The Association for the Study of Ethnicity and Nationalism (ASEN, UK), The Philosophical Association of Northern Luzon (PANL, Philippines) and the Clergy of the Diocese of Baguio.

Enrique Benjamin Fernando III has successfully defended his thesis on Jurisprudence for his Master of Arts in Philosophy at the University of the Philippines, Diliman. It was entitled, "Taking Raz Seriously: The Framework for a Source-Based Model of Adjudication." He graduated Magna Cum Laude from the Ateneo De Manila University in 2015 with a double major in BS Management Engineering and AB Philosophy, and a double minor in Strategic Human Resource Management and History. His research interests include topics in the Philosophy of Law, Social and Political Philosophy, Philosophy of Language, Philosophy of Science, Moral Philosophy, and the History of Analytic Philosophy. He works as a full time professional in data analytics in the financial technology industry.

Raymun Festin is a Divine Word missionary currently assigned in the Divine Word Generalate in Rome. He earned his Ph.D. in Philosophy from the Catholic University of Leuven, Belgium. He is the author of Beliefs and Certitudes (Logos: Manila, 2008), and is a member of the International Advisory Board of the Phavisminda Journal.

Jeffry Oca is a core faculty of the Graduate School of Eastern Visayas State University. He currently serves the University in different capacities as Director of the Office of Curriculum and Instruction and concurrent Director of the University Multimedia Development Center. His current research centers on the intersection of applied ethics, social and political philosophy, and indigenous studies, particularly the application of Critical Theory the Frankfurt School tradition to the margins of the global system with which the concept of “Critical Theory at the Margins” was born. Co-author Allison Cruyff Ladero is currently finishing his master’s degree in Philosophy at the University of Santo Tomas. He obtained his Bachelor of Arts degree in Philosophy at Silliman University, Magna cum laude, in 2018. He is currently a part-time faculty member of the History and Social Sciences (HSS) Department at Jose Rizal University.

Renante Pilapil is Dean of the School of Arts and Sciences of the Ateneo de Davao University where he also teaches graduate and undergraduate courses in Advanced Philosophy of Social Science, Political Philosophy, and Philosophy of Development among others. He finished his Ph.D. in Philosophy from the Higher Institute of Philosophy, KU Leuven, Belgium. On top of this is a Post-doc from the Philosophy Department of Columbia University, New York. He attended the Summer Institute in Brown International Advanced Research Institute, Brown University, Providence, USA, the Bergen Summer Research School, University of Bergen, Norway, and the Netherlands School of Practical Philosophy Summer School of the Utrecht University (Netherlands) in cooperation with KU Leuven, Belgium. Pilapil is also a member of Phavisminda Journal’s International Advisory Board.

Rhoderick John S. Abellanosa is currently Director of Human Resource Management and Faculty and Staff Development Officer of Sacred Heart School – Ateneo de Cebu. He has master’s degrees in Philosophy (2006) and Political Science (2008) from the University of San Carlos. In 2011 he was awarded Graduate Research Fellowship by the Asia Research Institute of the National University of Singapore (NUS). He also took audit Theological Studies in the Seminario Mayor de San Carlos. His publications and research interests are in the areas of Political Philosophy, Filipino Philosophy, Religion and Society, Business Ethics, and Catholic Social Ethics. He is the Editor-in-chief of the Phavisminda Journal. He is a regular columnist of Sunstar Bacolod under the title Fringes and Frontiers.