

CONTRIBUTORS TO THIS ISSUE

Eddie R. Babor, LL.B., Ph.D., is Full Professor and Director of Publications at the Holy Name University in Tagbilaran City, Bohol. He is the immediate past president of the Philosophical Association of the Visayas and Mindanao (PHAVISMINDA). He wrote several textbooks in philosophy such as The human person: Existing but not real, Ethics: The philosophical discipline of action, Logic: The philosophical discipline of correct thinking, Bioethics, A philosophical and critical journey into the life sciences: A guide to a health care provider. He also authored articles in various philosophical journals.

Stanley Krippner, Ph.D. is Professor of Psychology at Saybrook University in San Francisco, California. He is the author of Human Possibilities: Mind research in USSR and Eastern Europe, Song of siren: A parapsychological odyssey, Shamlet: The tragical histories of Hamlet. He is also a co-author of several books.

Orlando Ali M. Mandane Jr., Ph.D. teaches philosophy at the University of San Carlos, Cebu City. He is an Associate Professor of Philosophy.

Jamil Matalam, MA, teaches philosophy at the University of Southern Mindanao in Kabacan City, North Cotabato.

Roland Paulsen, Ph.D. teaches sociology in University of Uppsala in Sweden, where he specializes in sociology of work.

Raymundo Pavo, MPhil teaches at the University of the Philippines Mindanao. He obtained his Master of Philosophy (Cum Laude) from Katholieke Universiteit Leuven in Belgium. He is currently taking MA Theology at Holy Cross of Davao College.

Ruby S. Suazo, Ph.D. teaches philosophy at the University of San Carlos. He is the current President of the PHAVISMINDA and Associate Professor of Philosophy at the said university.