

HIGH SCHOOL SPORTS

Prep talk: City Section quarterbacks are having terrific seasons

Carson quarterback Chris Fields is among the top City Section passers. (Nick Koza)

By Eric Sondheimer
Columnist | Follow

Oct. 27, 2025 4 AM PT

The City Section used to produce lots of top running backs, from Charles White at San Fernando to Milton Knox at Birmingham. This season, Ceasar Reyes of Garfield set a school record with 420 yards rushing in a game and Darnell Miller of Santee set a City Section record with 502 yards rushing against Jefferson.

The talent level has dropped considerably at all positions, but this is a season quarterbacks are firing away and producing big numbers. It's going to make for quite a competition to be an All-City quarterback.

Liam Pasten of Eagle Rock. Diego Montes of Kennedy.

City Section made.

Pasten: "Don't underestimate us. Man, a lot of people look towards that Southern Section, but I mean, City Section players got heart. They battle every game. So just don't, don't underestimate the talent." pic.twitter.com/iJDKP9zc2c

— Benjamin Royer (@thebenroyer) August 23, 2025

The likely Open Division playoff quarterbacks are all having outstanding seasons: Chris Fields of Carson, Seth Solorio of San Pedro, Jack Thomas of Palisades, Liam Pasten of Eagle Rock, Kevin Hawkins of Birmingham and Diego Montes of Kennedy. Junior quarterback Bennett Dome of Venice had made major progress until an injury sidelined him on Friday.

Freshman Thaddeus Breaux of Hamilton has passed for 2,551 yards and 26 touchdowns. Michael Gonzalez, a junior at South Gate, is a two-way threat. Last week against Huntington Park, he passed for 305 yards and five touchdowns and ran for 131 yards and one touchdown.

All these competent quarterbacks mean when the playoffs begin in two weeks, no game is necessarily over because they are capable of running a two-minute drill to perfection and turning defeat into victory.

This is a daily look at the positive happenings in high school sports. To submit any news, please email eric.sondheimer@latimes.com.

More to Read

The Times' City Section high school football rankings

Oct. 27, 2025

The Times' City Section high school football rankings

Oct. 20, 2025

The Times' City Section high school football rankings

Oct. 13, 2025

Get our high school sports newsletter

Prep Rally is devoted to the SoCal high school sports experience, bringing you scores, stories and a behind-the-scenes look at what makes prep sports so popular.

Sign Me Up

Eric Sondheimer

Eric Sondheimer is the prep sports columnist for the Los Angeles Times. He has been honored seven times by the California Prep Sportswriters Assn. for best prep sports column.