1. A gopher in the night (instrumental)

2. L'or

I'm just a man,
From the past, but for now,
I am here, searching for my love,
We found her again dead,
Because one night,
She stabbed herself in the neck,

But it was only a dream,
The beauty of consciousness,
Sometimes I think I believe it,
Maybe I'm wrong,

Me, a small man
Just trying to be like my dad,
I died,
Searching for my love,
But he ended up drowning,
Near a lake where I was born,
Always searching for love

But it was only a dream,
The beauty of consciousness,
Sometimes I think I believe it,
Maybe I'm wrong,

I found myself, in the city of sorrow,
A man on the street said you're not dead,
I found myself an angel on the street,
He said to me, get up,
It is love that is gold, it is love that is gold,

But it was only a dream,
The beauty of consciousness,
Sometimes I believe it,
Maybe I'm wrong,
But it was just a dream,
The beauty of consciousness,
Sometimes I think I believe it,
It is love that is gold,
It is love that is gold,

3. Knowledge

One foggy day,
My friend and I,
Went downtown,
To quench our thirst and,
As a matter of fact,
We drank so much and,
As a matter of fact,
We're still drinking today,
We got drunk as skunks,
And we knew it well,
Yes, we knew it well,

And everywhere we went we had good luck,
And we knew it well,
Yes, we knew it well,

Sometimes I think life is too good,
Sometimes I dream in color,
Sometimes I think life is too good,
And somehow without knowing, I've been here before,

One day in the rain,
My friend and I,
We went to town,
To find tobacco and,
Having found it,
We smoked so much,
As a matter of fact,
We're still smoking and,
We smoked like chimneys,
And we knew it well,
Yes, we knew it well,
And everywhere we went we had good luck,
And we knew it well,
Yes, we knew it well,

And sometimes I think life is too good,
Sometimes I dream in color,
Sometimes I think life is too good,
And somehow without knowing, I've been here before,

4. Ce chemin de fer

One time I ran away from my soul,
I liked my life very much, but it just time,
So, when the train came along,
I jumped in a box,
I haven't been back home since,

I miss my friends every day,
When the sun sets,
But that train keeps on rolling,
I can't get off,
Can anyone help me?

I cry for help,
In the night, in the day,
No one hears me, maybe I'm dreaming,
I cry help me, please help me,
But nobody hears me maybe I'm dreaming,
This railroad forever,

I've traveled the world without pay,
I have almost starved, but I'm okay,
But this train keeps on rolling,
I can't get out,
Can somebody help me?

I miss my family every day,
When the sun rises, once again,
But that train's still rolling,

I can't get myself out,
Can somebody help me?

I cry for help,
In the night and in the day,
No one hears me, maybe I'm dreaming,
I cry help me, please help me,
But nobody hears me, maybe I'm dreaming,
This railroad forever,
This railroad forever,
This railroad forever,
This railroad forever,
This railroad forever,
This railroad forever,
This railroad forever,
This railroad forever,
This railroad forever, forever

5. On y va
So, off let's go,
Off to grandma's house
To find some peace and perhaps the soup du jour
So, off let's go,
Off to grandma's house
To find some peace and love again,

And I don't really know,
If I'll have the courage to tell her,
That I love her very much,
The days would turn to nights,

And then I'd be anxious from time to time
But I'm alright.

So, how did you find me?
I was hiding here because I was scared,
Thinking of the worst thing in the world,
But there you are,

So, how did you find me?
I was hiding here for a while,
Thinking of the worst thing ever,
But there you are,

So off let's go, off to grandma's house,
To find peace and love,
And maybe the soup... maybe the soup of the day,

So, off we go,
Off to fathers' house,
To find some humor and perhaps some discipline,

And so, off, let's go back,
Back to grandma's house,

And I don't really know,
If I'll have the courage to tell her,
That I love her very much,
The days would turn to nights,
But I'm alright,

So, how did you find me?
I was hiding here because I was scared,
Thinking of the worst thing in the world,
But there you are,
So, how did you find me?
I was hiding here for a while,
Thinking of the worst thing ever,
But there you are,
But there you are,

6. Little rabbit

I come from afar,
Where the ocean makes love to the sky,
And I don't know when,
That I said my good-byes,
So, I wait, and I wait,
For my friend to come back,
And I just know, we'll see each other soon,
On the old, same little road,

Run fast little rabbit in the night,
Bring me to heaven,
Help me find true courage,
Help me conquer fear,
Run fast little rabbit in the night,
Bring me to the sky,
Help me find good courage,
Help me convince the world,

I come from far away,
Where the mountains make love to the sky,
And I don't know when,
That I've said my good-byes,
So, I wait, and I wait,
For my friend who's coming back,
And we know we'll see each other soon,
On the old, same little road,

Run fast little rabbit in the night,
Bring me to heaven,
Help me find true courage,
Help me conquer fear,
Run fast little rabbit in the night,
Bring me to the sky,
Help me find good courage,
Help me convince the world,

7. The jacuzzi

In the holes of my nightmares, I wait,
After the dead of another time,
Always I'll wait there for you,
In, the holes, of my memories I wait,
After the dead, of another time,
Still, I wait,

I found the old witch,
I made my groundhog eat her because the weather was fine,
I didn't want a war,

But sometimes you must have some,
You must,

And like a whirling jacuzzi, I turn,

I cleaned the blood of the one who cost me dearly,
I ditched the earth where I'll add all that misery,
Oh, what misery,
But sometimes you must have some,
I've had too much,

And like a whirling jacuzzi, I turn,

In the holes of my nightmares, I wait,
After the dead of another time, I'll always wait there for you,
In the holes of my memories I wait,
After the dead of another time always I'll wait there,
Until the end of the earth,

In, the holes, of my nightmares I'll wait there, for you,
After the dead,
After my death...

8. The chronicle

Véronique's chronicle,
Was that of a castaway,
Thrown into the sea,

Towards the red,
Towards that red light,
Every day - for no reason,
She finds her paying man,

When you think you're worth nothing,
Colors change like winter,
You've got to remember the good times,
Otherwise, we'll fall,
But don't you worry,
Remember the good days,

Victoria's chronicle,
Was one of a pig,
Every day and without regret,
She finds her paying man,
This is love - No it was not love,
Yet one fine day and without question,
She quits her paying job,

When you think you're worthless,
Colors change like winter,
You've got to remember the good times,
Otherwise, we'll fall,
But don't you worry,
Remember the good days,

9. The house

I had a family once and I loved em all,
But time and time again I'd forget to let them know,
That just because I'm distant,
Doesn't mean I am gone and,
Life was so much better when I lived at home,

I lived with a friend and, it was so grand,
We would go out drinking each night and stumble back,
One day he moved away, and we slowly ceased to talk,
Yet life was not that different when he lived so far,

I hope to be so much more than a man,
If you could only see all the trouble from my past,
Sometimes when I dream all those fears come to life,
But I wake up and know that everything's all right,

One day I fell in love, and it was swell,
She didn't live too far so we said what the hell,
One day she moved on it, the next she moved on out,
Yes, life was so much better when she moved away,

One day my girl was born, and she changed my soul,
She was so bright,
I could feel my heartbeat glow,
But time she keeps on slipping,
And one day she moved on out,
Yes, life was so much better when she lived at home,

Yes, I hope to be so much more than a man,
If you could only see all the pain from my past,
Sometimes when I dream all those fears come to life,
I wake up and know that everything's all right,
I hope to be so much more than a man,
If you could only see all the troubles of my past,
Sometimes when I dream all my fears come to life,
But I wake up and know that everything's all right,
I know because you're always by my side,
