

THE LOOKOUT

MUIR WOODS PARK COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION
NEWSLETTER • JANUARY 2025

HAPPY NEW YEAR, NEIGHBORS!

First the good news: The powerhouse wordsmith behind our MWPCA newsletters for the past ten (10!) years, Nancy Gribler, will now be applying her savvy communication know-how to running the whole MWPCA shebang as President. She's taking over from Linda Sawtelle—a fearless champion of MWPCA causes for whom three years of brilliant, unrelenting volunteer leadership have proven, inexplicably, to be enough. We will miss them in their former capacities, but are grateful they both continue to serve on the Board.

So now it's on me to produce this venerable publication. Please forgive the typos (as if), unfortunate word choices and grammatical offenses. I'm new to this, but I love my community and I love talking about it—so this should be fun! (for me). Send feedback, news items, local photos, ideas for short articles, recipes, mountain memories, herbal remedies, gripes, hikes... anything you like! ... to me: sandra@workingdesigner.com Thanks!

MEET THE 2025 BOARD

If you missed the December holiday potluck due to an unscheduled alien abduction, we forgive you. But do try to make it to the next shindig—and bring your new friends. These events at the clubhouse are for ALL neighbors—young and... less young. Heck, the blazing twinkle light extravaganza alone is worth the cost of admission (free).

USE YOUR MWPCA

Those handsome volunteers in the photo above may seem like they have a higher stake in the clubhouse than you do, but in truth, every dues-paying member of the MWPCA is a valuable contributor to the upkeep of the building and its mission of fostering community up here on the mountain. Good work neighbors! Thank you! (And if you're NOT a dues-paying neighbor, join HERE). Don't be a stranger. Read on to see what's coming up at the clubhouse...

ICYMI* • HOLIDAY EDITION

V.I.P MEET & GREET AT THE MWPCA CLUBHOUSE ... On Dec. 8th, renowned toymaker Santa Claus and his adorable plus-one, Mrs. Claus, dropped in on the clubhouse to the delight of local super-fans who queued up for a bit of one-on-one time with the Man himself. Compliments to Throckmorton Fire Station for the ride, and to Liza Dunning, Ken Cook and Esther Ehrensaft for reaching out to the North Pole and making it happen.
