Ice-cream Man

When summer's in the city,
And brick's a blaze of heat,
The Ice-cream man with his little cart
Goes trundling down the street.

Beneath his round umbrella,
Oh, what a joyful sight,
To see him fill the cones with mounds
Of cooling brown and white:

Vanilla, chocolate, strawberry,
Or chilly things to drink
From bottles full of frosty- fizz,
Green, orange, white and or pink.

His cart might be a flower bed,
Of roses and sweet peas, sound
The way the children cluster ~~down~~
As thick as honeybee.
