Artist's Eye Gallery & Boutique

Consignor/Vendor Agreement

The Lake Worth Art League (LWAL), owner and operators of the Artist's Eye Gallery/Boutique, agrees to use its best efforts to sell the goods. Payment for such sales(s) shall be in the form of cash, check or credit card from the Purchaser(s) to the LWAL. The LWAL will charge and collect sales tax on these items.

A check will be made out to the Consignor for the price of the item(s) sold, minus 25% of the sale price of each item as a donation to the LWAL. Payment is to be picked up by the Consignor.

The LWAL is a 501©(3) corporation and each donation to the LWAL shall be tax deductible to the Consignor

The LWAL requires that you, the Artist/Consignor, fill out the vendor inventory form provided and keep it updated regularly. Prices of items shall be clearly marked on each item and visible to the customer following the Boutique rules. Each item must also be marked with your vendor number (V#) and an item number so you can receive credit for the sale. It is your responsibility to keep track of your inventory. Any discrepancies must be reported in a timely manner. The LWAL is not responsible for the loss of or damage to your consigned item(s), but will care for your item(s) in good faith.

You agree to limit the number of fashion jewelry items for display on the peg board to six (6), and artesian-type items for display on the shelves to four (4).

You acknowledge that any of your items remaining at the LWAL two (2) calendar months after your membership expiration date will become the property of the LWAL.
