MEMBERSHIP RESPONSIBILITY

All members who exhibit work in a gallery show are obligated to sit the gallery for one, four hour shift for that show. All members who have items in the boutique, including card rack and print bins, must sit the gallery for one, four hour shift each month the items are present in the Gallery. Those artists who have both work in the exhibit and boutique in the same month are only obligated to sit one, four hour shift. If a member can not sit as obligated, then a sitting fee will be owed and collected so a sitter can be hired in their place.

MEMBERSHIP APPROVAL AND CODE OF CONDUCT

The Lake Worth Art League does not discriminate. All membership applications and renewals shall be approved by the Board of Directors or its designee. We reserve the right to refuse, suspend or revoke membership due to improper conduct as outlined below:

- a. Theft, dishonesty, malicious mischief and illegal conduct within and outside the Art League. In addition, any personal or professional conduct that may shed poor light on the Art League, or cause disruption to the Art League as determined by the Board of Directors.
- b. Disclosing at any time in any manner, directly or indirectly, use for personal benefit, or divulge, disclose, or communicate in any manner Confidential Information belonging to the Art League or its Members without permission from the President(s) or Executive Committee of the Board of Directors. The term "Confidential Information" includes but is not limited to entry keys and pass codes, usernames, passwords, grants, proposals, financial data, membership and donor information, logos, unpublished calendars or plans, and templates.
