A Message from the Board of Directors

Dear Members,

We are working hard to build up the LWAL to where it was before the pandemic. We are happy to announce that we have many new and returning members. Classes are being offered again, and Open Studio Thursdays have resumed. We have invited some new judges to participate in our season shows, and hope to add them to our judging pool.

We are happy to see many of our good friends and members return to us from "Up Nawth" and hope all of them will be returning soon.

We are hoping to continue with our Outdoor Show this year during the Street Painting Festival. We will begin to sign up for that event very soon. This will be first come, first serve, as there is limited space available. A deposit for the space will be required. The deposit will be refundable to those who participate.

We are glad to see the boutique being filled up again with all kinds of fabulous items. Carrie Leoni is in charge of that area if you wish to place items in the boutique.

We are looking forward to seeing more of you in the New Year!

ITEMS FOR SALE!

We have many used frames of all sizes in the small gallery (middle room) that are available for purchase at very nominal prices, to benefit the LWAL.

A reminder: Please clear any in-kind donations to the LWAL with Dede or Lee, to be sure they can benefit the League. We just do not have room for items that are not in good condition, or items that our members may not be interested in.

Any books donated for the Library must be "how-to" books. Members may borrow the books.

Art magazines may be donated, such as Artist Magazine and the like to benefit the LWAL, as we can offer them for a small donation. Understand, we can't utilize our small gallery for storage, we must use this space to benefit the LWAL. Thank you in advance.

Needed...

Your art league needs volunteers. There are many tasks. If you have some free time and are willing to help us out, please let us know. We have small tasks, once a month tasks, and those that take a bit more time. Some take a bit of computer knowledge, and many require no specialized knowledge at all. Please keep us in mind.

We also would appreciate the donations of food/beverage and small plastic wine cups for the receptions.

Next Up:

Take-in is on Sunday, Jan. 8th, for our fourth show of the season; "Communicative". We are looking forward to seeing you then!
