A Message from the Board of Directors

A SUCESSFULL OUTDOOR TENT & TABLE SHOW

The LWAL Art League held its annual Outdoor Tent & Table show with 14 artists participating during the Lake Worth Street Painting Festival. A special thanks to Dede DeHon for going above and beyond to sort and record all the transactions that took place during this event, inside and out and we are pleased to say there were many! Many thanks to our volunteers who helped staff the gallery; we could not have done it without you! A big hug to Salim for treating us to pizza!

Really Needed...

We need and would appreciate the donations of food/beverage for the receptions.

Your art league needs volunteers. There are many tasks. If you have some free time and are willing to help us out, please let us know. We have small tasks, once a month tasks, and those that take a bit more time. Some take a bit of computer knowledge, and many require no specialized knowledge at all. Please keep us in mind.

THREE CLASSES OFFERED STARTING IN MARCH. SIGN UP NOW!

VALUE & COLOR CLASS

WITH DARCY DOIEL

Beginner thru Intermediate

Darcy Doiel, is an award winning artist and instructor. In this class you'll be learning and applying the concepts and techniques of color and value through various fun activities. Since these classes are progressive, they should all be attended unless you've spoken to the instructor in advance.

WATERCOLOR CLASSES

WITH ED BIANCHI

Watercolor Fundamentals

This class is geared towards beginner and intermediate students looking to learn and build upon the fundamentals of watercolor painting. An emphasis will be placed on familiarization with handling the water-to-pigment ratio, a crucial building block to obtain the color intensity desired. Additionally, you will learn about the basics including paper selection, brush selection, tool usage, brush stroke variations. These lessons will be reinforced with ample in-class practice time and focused homework assignments. As you progress, you will also learn about painting composition as well as possible ways to approach subjects which may be of interest (ie. skies, trees, landscapes, seascapes, etc.) By the end of the course, you will have been exposed to all of the components necessary to develop your own painting style.

The Artist's Eye Gallery & Boutique is owned and operated by the Lake Worth Art League, Inc., a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization.

ITEMS FOR SALE!

We still have a few used frames in the small gallery (middle room) that are available for purchase at very nominal prices, to benefit the LWAL. There are many stretcher steps for canvas art as well.

Michael Raiman is selling a 10x10 E-Z Up Regulation Show Tent, complete with hanging walls, weights, enclosures, etc. for $350.00 which is an exceptional price. See the flyer on the bulletin board in the back of the gallery for more information.

A reminder: Please clear any in-kind donations to the LWAL with Dede or Lee, to be sure they can benefit the League. We just do not have room for items that are not in good condition, or items that our members may not be interested in.

Any books donated for the Library must be "how-to" books. Members may borrow the books.

Art magazines may be donated, such as Artist Magazine and the like to benefit the LWAL, as we can offer them for a small donation. Understand, we can't utilize our small gallery for storage, we must use this space to benefit the LWAL. Thank you in advance.

Next Up:

Take-in is on Sunday, Mar. 5th, for our sixth show of the season; "Stimulating".
We are looking forward to seeing you then!
