Our purpose is to operate exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, with a focus on:

Honoring the deep military lineage that has shaped the history of alcohol in America, beginning with veteran-owned breweries and distilleries.

Providing mentorship, advocacy, and community support to help independent producers thrive in an industry dominated by large corporations.

Expanding support to other underrepresented producers, uniting these voices to ensure authenticity, diversity, and community-driven traditions in American brewing and distilling.

Advancing education, training, and mentorship in brewing, distilling, hospitality, and entrepreneurship, with a focus on transitioning veterans and underrepresented groups.

Supporting sustainable, locally sourced production and promoting authenticity, craftsmanship, and community through public education and outreach.

Hosting competitions, festivals, and charitable events that celebrate heritage and craftsmanship, generating proceeds to fund veteran business mentorship, technical training, and start-up programs.

Preserving American traditions in brewing and distilling and promoting inclusivity in the industry, cultivating the next generation of producers.

Our mission and vision are rooted in:

Service: Honoring those who serve and strengthening communities.

Tradition: Preserving America's brewing and distilling heritage.

Innovation: Encouraging creativity, sustainability, and modern craft solutions.

Equity: Providing opportunities for underrepresented and emerging businesses.

Community: Building bridges between farmers, producers, and consumers.

We envision a future where independent craft producers stand shoulder to shoulder with the largest corporations, empowered by their heritage, creativity, and authenticity. CRAFT will preserve traditions, empower entrepreneurs, champion diversity, and strengthen communities through transparency, storytelling, and shared experience.
