

At The End Of Every Prayer

(Verse 1)

Life can hit you like a hurricane,
Lost within the wind and driving rain,
But in the darkest moments, That bring us to our knees
We find the place where Grace and sorrow meet

(Chorus)

Every broken heart, Can fall into the arms of love
Everyone who's lost can come, 'Cause Jesus is enough
Every cry from Mercy finds, that God's already there
At the end of every prayer

(Verse 2)

So bring the questions weighing on your mind
Even if you're only asking "why?"
The Lord is always faithful, To all who will believe
Just call up on his name and you'll see

(Bridge)

Pray even if your heart is torn, He'll make a way
In the middle of the storm, when clouds are grey
Even when you cannot find the words to say, Pray
(Repeat Chorus)
