Publish your Project

1. You will see the below screen when you are working on your project. When you are ready to publish it, click the “Share” button in the top left corner – circled below.

2. When you click “Share,” you will receive a link for your project (see below). You will include this link in your Submission Form. Copy and paste to include.