Artwork has a magical way of bringing communities closer and with the stroke of a brush and a splash of color, that is exactly what young Austin Picinich has been doing across the Puget Sound area.

Austin started his own business at just 14 -years-old in 2020, Austin's Awesome Art (Austinsart.net), and has won several awards since, including the 2022 Barron Prize for Young Heroes.

His work has touched the lives of many and has raised awareness for several worthwhile causes. If you have ever driven past or stopped for an order of fish-n-chips at SPUD in Juanita, then you have seen one of Austin's larger community projects, the "Save Our Salmon Mural". The 62-foot mural was accomplished with 160+ volunteer painters, raised over $11,642, and reached almost 1 million people with salmon awareness campaigns.

But SPUD is not the only location you can find Austin's paintings in Kirkland. He also has art located at 5 other Kirkland locations including the SAP Art Gallery in Juanita. In fact, if you visit his website, you will find that he has paintings hung and sold in well over 40 Puget Sound locations!

Have You Visited?

There is no doubt that the pandemic hit us all hard in many different ways. For Elsa, the owner of H Party Plus in Juanita, it meant the end of a 30+ year career as an accountant. Elsa took the life change as an opportunity to own her own business and she jumped in with both feet. Her store is packed with amazing party products like cards, balloons, streamers, and more... even life size card board cutouts of superheroes. However, it hasn't been an easy venture for Elsa. Even though her store is conveniently located next to the Juanita QFC, her customer count has remained lower than she would like and in this last year, the owner of the franchise she partnered with passed, which has left her without the business support she had in the beginning.

In short, Elsa could use the community's help and support. So if you have a birthday party approaching, need a card for a loved one, or perhaps you are hosting a St. Patrick's Day party this month... SHOP LOCAL and buy your party supplies from this lovely little party shop!
