A Message from David

We begin our Lenten pilgrimage to Easter on Ash Wednesday, March 2nd, with a 7 o'clock devotional experience in the sanctuary. I am hopeful that the church family will come together for that service, whether online or in person, because it is indeed a pilgrimage of hope in a time of transition.

Among the lessons I have learned along the way is that the spiritual life is not all about arriving at a destination, but about sharing life in all its fullness with the Lord along the way. To long for the end of times, and miss the value of sharing our time with the Lord, is to deny the greatest miracle of all, that the Lord who will welcome us home is also with us on our homeward journey.

The PC(USA) has provided us with a series of devotionals titled Making the Road. Copies of those devotionals will be available in the sanctuary during Lent, but I have another idea. I am willing to email those devotionals daily with my thoughts and a prayer added to those who provide their emails to me for that purpose.

There will be two tablets in the narthex of the sanctuary on Ash Wednesday and on Sunday mornings. I am usually up enjoying my own devotional stillness by 5 o'clock, and would like to share my devotional insights to any and all who may want to share the pilgrimage with me.

We know how the journey to Easter turns out with resurrection joy, but there is much to learn about ourselves when we journey with the Lord with a posture of repentance and hope. I look forward to sharing the journey with you.

David

Humoresque

"The One whose throne is in heaven sits laughing." - Psalm 2:4

At center ice he sits down, noticing that the seat next to him is empty. He leans over and asks his neighbor if someone will be sitting there. "No" says the neighbor. "The seat is empty." "This is incredible," said the man. "Who in their right mind would have a seat like this for the Stanley Cup and not use it?" The neighbor says, "Well, actually, the seat belongs to me. I was supposed to come with my wife, but she passed away. This is the first Stanley Cup we haven't been to together since we got married." "Oh, I'm so sorry to hear that....that's terrible. But couldn't you find someone else, a friend or relative, or even a neighbor to take the seat?" The man shakes his head. "No," he says. "They're all at the funeral." [from Marj Burgan]

Matthew's Genealogy of Jesus: " ..Jacob the father of Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom Jesus was born, who is called the Messiah."

Lesson seven will be the focus of our Bible Study in Circle meetings. We welcome our church members and friends to join us. Circle meetings will be in March 8th in the parlor at 9:30; in the library at 1:00; and on March 14th in the parlor at 4:00.

Preparations continue for Celebration of Women Sunday on March 13th. We will also be announcing the recipient of the PW Honorary Life Membership Award for outstanding service on that date. Please come celebrate Gods glory with us on this day.

March Faith Formation Happenings

Wednesday WRAP: Our next Follow Me series topic is on “Practices of Spiritual Disciplines,” which we will explore throughout Lent. The publisher describes this next series as “Spiritual disciplines are usually thought of as those things that help us draw near to God and might include different forms of prayer, meditation, study, and service. Spiritual practices are seen as those things Jesus did, said, or embodied; we as Jesus’ followers try to do so as well.” Please consider joining us for dinner, fellowship, worship and explore the spiritual disciplines Jesus set in motion.

We are not meeting on March 9 because of Spring Break.

Spring has Sprung at the Preschool, and we are starting to plant new flowers and vegetables in our little garden! The children love to water them daily and really enjoy checking on them to see how much has changed. This month we will be talking about insects, bugs, pond life, gardening and children around the world. We will also be closed for our Spring Break holiday from March 7-11. I wonder what the garden will look like when we return?!

Also, we have just opened up the Early Registration for the 2022/2023 school year. Can you believe it's that time of year already? Please send your neighbors, grandchildren, friends and family over to get them started and take advantage of the early bird registration discount. Our early registration fee is $75 and will be good through the end of March, but don't wait too long, because the price goes up to $85 on April 1st!

Happy Spring everyone!
