A Message from Brant

Former heavyweight boxer James (Quick) Tillis was a cowboy from Oklahoma who fought out of Chicago in the early 1980's. Years later, he still remembers his first day in the Windy City after his arrival from Tulsa.

"I got off the bus with two cardboard suitcases under my arms in downtown Chicago and stopped in front of the Sears Tower. I put my suitcases down and I looked up at the Tower and I said to myself, 'I'm going to conquer Chicago.'"

"When I looked down, the suitcases were gone."

It doesn't take too long to realize that life is full of disappointments. Even a two year old is familiar with the fact that expectations aren't met, promises aren't kept, that stuff breaks, hopes are dashed, and that even if you are having a great time playing a game you can fall and skin your knee.

Here is just a short list of the things that I find most disappointing in my life having to do with other people:

- ⇒ unreturned phone calls or e-mails
- ⇒ being stood up for appointments by people who seem incapable of keeping a calendar
- ⇒ being cheated or lied to by people seeking their own gain or advantage

I am also disappointed when I witness people making poor choices, not living into the full potential of their life, or living in ways that conflict with the life of grace and thanksgiving to which our Lord calls us. I am disappointed that I can sometimes relate to something Snoopy once said, "I love humankind, its people I can't stand."

Through the month of April we will be looking at some of the more serious disappointments life tends to bring our way. Here's a list of the topics we'll examine:

- April 7—When You Are Disappointed With Others
Colossians 3:12-25
- April 14—When You Feel Disappointed With God
Psalm 69:1-4, 13-18
- April 21—When You Are Disappointed With Yourself
Romans 7:14-25
- April 28—When You Are Disappointed With Church
Romans 14:1-23

I am praying that this series will bless and strengthen us all!

In Christ,
Brant

Music is a moral law. It gives soul to the universe, wings to the mind, flight to the imagination, and charm and gaiety to life and to everything. - Plato (c. 429 – 347 BC)

An affectionate paean to Smalltown, U.S.A. of a bygone era, Meredith Willson's THE MUSIC MAN follows fast-talking traveling salesman Harold Hill as he cons the people of River City, Iowa into buying instruments and uniforms for a boys' band he vows to organize - this despite the fact he doesn't know a trombone from a treble clef. His plans to skip town with the cash are foiled when he falls for Marian the librarian, who transforms him into a respectable citizen by curtain's fall. THE MUSIC MAN is presented through special arrangement with Music Theatre International (MTI). All authorized performance materials are supplied by MTI, 421 W. 54 St., New York, NY 10019. Tel: (212) 541-4684. Fax: (212) 397-4684. www.MTIShows.com. For show information, please call the church office at (480) 964-8606, Ext. 24.

Humoresque

"The One whose throne is in heaven sits laughing." - Psalm 2:4

A police officer pulls over a speeding car. The officer says, "I clocked you at 80 miles per hour, sir." The driver says, "Gee, officer I had it on cruise control at 60, perhaps your radar gun needs calibrating." Not looking up from her knitting, the wife says, "Now don't be silly, dear, you know that this car doesn't have cruise control." As the officer writes out the ticket, the driver looks over at his wife and growls, "Can't you please keep your mouth shut for once?" The wife smiles demurely and says, "You should be thankful your radar detector went off when it did." As the officer makes out the second ticket for the illegal radar detector unit, the man glowers at his wife and says through clenched teeth, "can't you keep your mouth shut?" The officer frowns and says, "And I notice that you're not wearing your seat belt, sir. That's an automatic $75 fine." The driver says, "Yeah, well, you see officer, I had it on but took it off when you pulled me over so that I could get my license out of my back pocket." The wife says, "Now, dear, you know very well that you didn't have your seat belt on. You never wear your seat belt when you're driving." As the police officer is writing out the third ticket, the driver turns to his wife and barks, "WHY DON'T YOU PLEASE SHUT UP?" The officer looks over at the woman and asks, "Does your husband always talk to you this way, Ma'am?" The wife replies . . . "Only when he's been drinking."

Saturday, March 16th, four members of FPCPW attended the PWP of Grand Canyon Spring Gathering. During the morning session the keynote speaker was Dr. Randy Christensen Pediatrician at Phoenix Children’s Hospital and Medical Director of the Crews’n Health mobile who spoke about providing medical care for homeless children in the Phoenix area. He is also author of the book, Ask Me Why I Hurt. Dr. Christensen’s knowledgeable and candid presentation was an eye opener of the problems of child trafficking and child abuse of homeless children in our area. During the afternoon session Helen Lents was installed as PWP Treasurer. Susan McMichael has held that position for the last eight years.

PW has purchased white table clothes for the new round tables now in use in Fellowship Hall. They will be available for ALL Church use. They will be placed in the PW Cupboard in the hallway to Fellowship Hall.

The PW Nominating Committee is searching for members to fill positions on the Coordinating Team for 2013 – 14. Please, prayerfully consider sharing your time and talents by serving on the Coordinating Team. Discuss with present Circle Leaders how you might become more involved.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT LIVE

We will be concluding our fourth block of Wednesday Night Live on April 10th. The theme for our last night will be FORMAL night. Come dressed in your formal attire to celebrate. Thank you to everyone who participated in this new Wednesday night offering!

Whether you participated in one, two, three or all four blocks of Wednesday Night Live, we would like to cordially invite you to our Closing Celebration. The closing celebration will be a Western party on Wednesday, April 17th, from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. Come dressed in your western wear and enjoy a themed dinner and activities! Suggested donations of $5 per person will be accepted at the door.

SonWest Roundup Vacation Bible School comes to FPC June 3 – June 7, 2013. In SonWest, we'll celebrate all the fun of being buckaroos – so grab a sarsaparilla and join in the jamboree! There'll be food, games, music, crafts – and amazing true stories that point you and your kids to Jesus! Feel the breezes rise through the shady purple canyons as we head out through this bright wilderness – we're traveling down the trail through the Old Testament stories of Moses to discover God's ultimate plan of salvation in Jesus, because "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever." (Hebrews 13:8) Children age 5 through 12 are invited! Cost is only $15 per child and each family registering will get a free music CD. Plus, if your child registers in advance AND participates in Day 1, they will get a prize!! We would love to have all interested Youth and adults volunteer with us. Please contact Patty Carnes or Jasmine Couillard with any questions you might have.

The month of March has been very lively for our little friends. We had a guinea pig, chicken and a pony visit the preschool. We also had some amazing rain pour down which brought many smiles to the kids' faces. We are working this month on bugs, insect and flowers. During April we will be learning about family pets, birds, pond life and children from around the world. It will be fun to discover new things.

Registration is underway for the summer and fall programs! We need every referral that we can get to start out strong and as full as we can. Please consider sharing our preschool information with friends and families with children who are 2

1/2— Pre-K age (potty-trained required). Thank you!

Our staff has been working on creating an emergency response box for each classroom. This would be something that they use in case of an emergency within their own classroom, if they could not come into the office for first-aid supplies or general emergency needs. We would like to ask for your help with putting these together. We are looking for donations from our church family to help provide some of these things to offset the cost to the preschool. We will have the list of items in the office with Linda so that you can check them off and see what still needs donating.

Here is what we need: 3 bed sheets (flat not fitted, queen or king size—used), 3 warm blankets (queen or king size—used), matches, bottled water (2 cases per classroom, and 2 for the office—8 total), 8 flashlights, 24 Batteries (D size), 3 rolls of Duct tape, 1 box Large plastic trash bags, Hydrogen Peroxide (3 bottles), Alcohol Swabs (1 box), Assorted Band-Aids (all sizes for each class), Hypoallergenic Tape (3 rolls), Tweezers (3), Gauze rolls (3), Sterile Pads (all sizes for each class), Ace Bandages (3), Anti-bacterial Ointment (3), Disposable gloves (1 box), Q-tips (1 box), Sanitary Napkins (1 super absorbent size package), 3 large size tote boxes with lids.

We cannot thank you enough for the help that you have given to us and that you are giving to us! We feel the prayers that you express and appreciate them very much!

Sincerely,
Shiloh Murillo, Preschool Director
