A Message from Ann

Mid-Summer Meanderings

This summer I have the opportunity to travel for mission, for study, for community, and for family. I am grateful to God and to all of you at FPC Mesa for these wonderful opportunities.

In early July, I joined our mission team from Mesa First to travel to the Navajo Nation. During the past three years, we have developed and grown a relationship with the congregation and community of Tseyi Bidaa Presbyterian Church. We have traveled to their community to offer Vacation Bible School to the children of that congregation and the surrounding area. I have been blessed in so many ways with this opportunity of mutual ministry – to sing and praise God together; to learn about one another’s culture and community; to bask in the beauty of God’s creation; and to get to know new people, new friends in Christ. Our hope is to continue to nurture this relationship and, possibly, to engage in mission together in the coming year.

As I write this, I am at Ghost Ranch, a Presbyterian retreat center in northern New Mexico, at a conference sponsored and funded by the Synod of the Southwest. A group of pastors from Arizona and New Mexico have gathered together for a week of study and reflection. Guided well on this endeavor by Rev. Dr. Anna Carter Florence, preaching professor at Columbia Seminary in Decatur, GA, we have set our focus on the art and craft of preaching, especially that of preaching difficult texts in difficult times. Again we are blessed by the beauty of the mesas.

When I return, I will then re-orient for an extended weekend in Louisville for the Presbyterian Women’s Triennial Gathering. Having experienced this once before in 1998, I look forward to spending time with a group of Presbyterian Women from FPC Mesa as we learn and grow in our faith together. It is always a great joy to see the wider church in action and to be reminded of all of the wonderful resources of our denomination when we come together as the connectional church. I look forward to this gathering of faithful women with great joy and anticipation!

To round out my summer travels, in early September, I will travel back to Michigan to celebrate the marriage of one of my cousins. It will be a time to be together with family whom I don’t often get to be with, to enjoy the beauty and peaceful presence that is Lake Michigan, and to see both of my adult kids’ housing for the coming year.

God is so very faithful in providing time for rest and reflection; time for the study of Scripture and preaching; time in mission and community to learn and grow together; and time to gather with family from all around the country. I hold you all in prayer during this season of summer, even as I welcome and cherish your prayers. In all things, I give thanks to God!

~ Pastor Ann

Humoresque

"The One whose throne is in heaven sits laughing." - Psalm 2:4

A couple in their nineties are both having problems remembering things. During a check-up, the doctor tells them that they're physically okay, but they might want to start writing things down to help them remember... Later that night, while watching TV, the old man gets up from his chair. 'Want anything while I'm in the kitchen?' he asks. 'Will you get me a bowl of ice cream?' 'Sure.' 'Don't you think you should write it down so you can remember it?' she asks. 'No, I can remember it.' 'Well, I'd like some strawberries on top, too. Maybe you should write it down, so as not to forget it?' He says, 'I can remember that. You want a bowl of ice cream with strawberries.' 'I'd also like whipped cream. I'm certain you'll forget that, write it down?' she asks. Irritated, he says, 'I don't need to write it down, I can remember it! Ice cream with strawberries and whipped cream - I got it, for goodness sake!' Then he toddles into the kitchen. After about 20 minutes, the old man returns from the kitchen and hands his wife a plate of bacon and eggs. She stares at the plate for a moment. 'Where's my toast?' [from Anita Ramsey]

MISSION

Pastor — Ann Conklin
Mission (Chair--E) — Sue Eisenklam

Assimilation (D) — Alice Schlak
Marketing (E) —

Seasonal Ministries (D) — Shelley Cronenberg
Hunger Action (D) — Sandra Clark

Jesus Rescues! The 22 participants had opportunities to live this message as well as to carry it! Some on the trip were dealing with health and life issues, as well as physical injuries. Some had never had a mission trip experience. Others had other challenges. Yet all, allowed the message of “Jesus rescues” to be their own and moved past themselves to carry the very same message to those who came to Tseyi Bidaa Vacation Bible School. There, we sang and moved to the music of Never Let Go of Me, the theme song, where we proclaimed that through every storm of life we know God is by our side and that we are holding on to his promise that he will never let go of us. In Rescue Me, we raised our voices in supplication singing: “And the waves are crashing all around. I need you, God, and I need you now. Rescue me. I can feel the water rising. Rescue me, Jesus... Lord, I’m in so deep and I feel powerless to save myself. Only you can be the help I need. Rescue me.” Wow! How many of us can identify with these powerful messages?!

We averaged 29 children a day. We discovered this year that while eight of those children from Tseyi Bidaa know and love Jesus, the rest of the children don’t hear about him except when they come to Vacation Bible School! Some came for the food. Some came for something to do. They came, and we received them, showing love and kindness and embracing the experience, sharing the good news whether in the opening and closing songs, in Kid Vid, Imagination Station, Bible Adventures, games or just in conversation! We were able to deepen our relationships with both children and adults who have been coming every year. It is a joy to be in relationship with them. We were blessed in so many ways.

This year VBS was in the morning from 10:00-1:00. Our great cooks prepared lunch not only for our crew but for the VBS children as well as all the adults who were there. We usually left the church around 2:00 p.m. In the evenings we had opportunities to participate in a myriad of activities including going to overlooks of Canyon de Chelly, touring the historic Presbyterian church in Ganado, swimming at Chinle High School Aquatics complex, horseback riding or jeep touring into the canyon, hearing a talk about the Hogan at the Visitor Center and/or hiking White House Ruins trail.

On Wednesday evening we attended a dinner at Trinity Presbyterian in Chinle. After dinner, we heard Leslie Vogel, who was with us all week, speak about mission in Guatemala and about her new job as liaison to Mexico and Guatemala. It was good for us to hear her as it stirred a conversation about what the international mission trip in 2019 might look like. It is generally agreed that Guatemala may not be the best for us and that perhaps a border ministry experience might be more meaningful. Resources for investigation and consideration were provided.

Be sure to join us at 10:00 a.m. on Sunday, August 12th, for worship in Fellowship Hall where you will see pictures and hear from participants about the experiences that touched them during the week we were gone. You don’t want to miss this!

UPCOMING EVENTS

Mark your calendars for this upcoming Fellowship event! It is not to be missed! Stay tuned for further updates. Make plans to attend and bring a friend!

- August 24 — Faith & Family Night with the Arizona Diamondbacks including a post-game concert featuring Mercy Me! Tickets are $24 for the Bullpen Reserve Section. Sign up during coffee time. Invite your friends!

We ended last year's study of Hebrew's with a tasty lunch, a wonderful presentation from Ruth Robinson and a heartfelt "THANK YOU" to Sue Eisenklam for her time as Moderator.

We will be starting a new study in September titled, "God's Promise, I Am With You." Author, Amy Poling Sutherland gives us a study that shows how His promise to be with us in good times and bad times and never to forsake us, is repeated from Genesis to the end of the Gospels. The focus will be the promise itself and how it speaks into particular circumstances.

Please come and join in on remembering just how much God loves each of us. The conversations and the feeling of community will bring you back each month.

THE BIG EVENT IS JUST AHEAD! The Presbyteries of Grand Canyon and de Cristo are proud to present our annual Big Event, Saturday, August 25th, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Tucson.
