Responsive Call to Worship

Sue Eisenklam

One: Come, all who long for deeper connection with Jesus—God's chosen Servant, the light for the nations.

Many: We gather, thirsty for your presence, O God; draw us close to your heart.

One: Hear the voice of the Lord, mighty over the waters, bringing strength and peace.

Many: Speak to us, Heavenly Father; let us hear your voice of love today.

One: The Spirit descends, the heavens open, and the Beloved is revealed.

Many: Anoint us anew, Lord Jesus; immerse us in your grace and power.

All: Let us worship the Triune God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—who calls us beloved and invites us near!

Call to Confession

Sue Eisenklam

Unison Prayer of Confession

Loving God, you long to call each of us “beloved,” yet we confess that we often feel unworthy or far away. We have chased things that leave us empty. We have hurt people we love. We have stayed silent when we should have spoken up for what is right. We have doubted your kindness toward us and forgotten how deeply you delight in us. Forgive what we have done and what we have left undone. Wash away the guilt we carry. Quiet the voices that tell us we are not enough. Draw us close again, and help us live as people who know they are truly loved by you.
