

*Syracuse Snakes.
114 Sneaky Snake Road, Syracuse, N.Y., 13210*

MEDIA ALERT

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT:

John Peterson, HR Director of the Syracuse Snakes
(315)327-6376
jpeterson@syracusesnakes.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

SYRACUSE, N.Y. --- Syracuse Snakes will be hosting a media briefing to discuss the resignation of Chad Brockton following homophobic comments revealed in recent emails.

What: Syracuse Snakes, an NFL team, will be hosting a media briefing to acknowledge the comments made by Coach Brockton and his recent resignation. The organization will answer questions regarding its response to Brockton's comments.

Who: Syracuse Snakes invites the media to the briefing, which will be hosted by Owner Scott Jones with insight from the HR Director John Peterson, Assistant Coach Pete Brown and Snakes player Mike Carson.

When: 3:30 p.m. EST on March 22, 2022

Where: Newhouse 1, Room 206B. Syracuse University, 215 University Place, Syracuse, NY 13244

About Syracuse Snakes:

Syracuse Snakes are a professional American football team based in Syracuse, New York. The Snakes joined the National Football League in 1976 and have won two Super Bowl titles. In an effort to give back to its community, the Snakes annually contribute $1 million to the Ronald McDonald house charities and participate in Pride Month, changing the color of its logo to rainbow every June to recognize the valuable contributions of LGBTQ+ communities. For more information and the schedule, visit SyracuseSnakes.com

###