- (13) SINGULAR words shall import the plural.
- (14) TERM OF OFFICE for Command, District, and Zone Officers shall be from the conclusion of one Provincial Convention to the conclusion of the next Provincial Convention. This Term of Office shall also apply to all Standing Committee Chairs at the aforementioned levels with the exclusion of the Track and Field Chairs, whose term shall be from 1st day of August in the year of the last Provincial Convention to the 31st of July in the year of the next Provincial Convention.
- (15) ZONE COUNCIL shall be a Zone Executive Council within the jurisdiction of the Ontario Provincial Command.

ARTICLE II – ORGANIZATION

201. Command Territory. The Command shall include all Branches within the Province of Ontario east of Longitude 85 degrees west.
202. Real Property. The real property that may be held or acquired by the Command shall be held in the name of the Command.

ARTICLE III – CONVENTION

301. Command Authority. The Convention shall be the supreme authority within the Command.

WHEN HELD

302. The Convention shall be held biennially on a date not later than thirty (30) months after the adjournment of the preceding Convention. A three-year interval may be allowed between Conventions provided the approval of two-thirds of the Members present at a properly convened Meeting of the Council has been attained prior to the date of the next regularly scheduled Convention. In exceptional circumstances, with the consent of Dominion Command, the interval between Conventions may be extended as appropriate.

QUORUM

303. Before a Convention may be opened there shall be present thereat duly accredited representation, including proxies, of at least ten percent (10%) of the Branches in the Command in good standing at the time of such Convention.
304. A quorum for the transaction of business at any Convention shall be the presence on the floor of the Convention chamber of at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the accredited representatives registered for that Convention, provided that if it is shown at any time during the Convention there is not a quorum, the Provincial Chair will adjourn such Convention from time to time for the purpose of obtaining such a quorum.

DELEGATES

305. (1) The Convention shall consist of delegates from Branches within the Command and those other delegates who meet the applicable qualifications as found within these By-Laws.
- (2) For the purpose of determining the number of Accredited Delegates which a Branch shall be entitled to send to the Convention, the Membership strength of a Branch shall be the number of fully paid up Ordinary, Life, Associate, and Affiliate Voting Members carried on the files of Command at the end of the preceding calendar year. Each Branch shall be entitled to certify one (1) Accredited delegate for the first fifty (50) Ordinary, Life, Associate and Affiliate Voting Members or fraction thereof and one (1) for each additional one hundred (100) or fraction thereof, provided that where a Branch has received its charter subsequent to the end of the last preceding calendar year, it shall be entitled to one (1) delegate.
- (3) All current Members of Council, and any Past Provincial President, all of whom are Members in good standing of a Branch within the Command, shall have the standing of an Accredited Delegate at Convention.
- (4) Accredited Delegates shall be entitled to full privileges, including entitlement to vote at Provincial, District, and Zone Conventions.
- (5) Any Ordinary, Life, Associate, or Affiliate Voting Member in good standing shall be an Accredited Delegate, upon being appointed and certified by their Branch as well as Council Members of the level of the Legion at which the Convention is being held.

- (6) Any Ordinary, Life, Associate, or Affiliate Member in good standing may register as an observer delegate.
306. Every Accredited delegate who presents authorized credentials duly certified by, or on behalf of the Branch, shall be registered with the Committee on Credentials.
307. The Committee on Credentials may also register Guest Delegates.
308. The Command shall not be responsible for expenses of delegates to Conventions, except as stated in Section 606.
309. No delegate shall be registered except on the payment of a registration fee of which amount shall be fixed by the Committee on Arrangements, subject to approval of Council. A delegate may pay by cash or with a Branch cheque covering the single payment of the delegate fee.

CONVENTION COMMITTEES

310. (1) The Provincial President shall appoint the following Convention Committees in sufficient time prior to the assembly of the Convention to enable them to adequately perform their duties:
  - (1) A Committee on Arrangements;
  - (2) A Committee on Constitution and Laws;
  - (3) A Committee on Credentials;
  - (4) A Committee on Resolutions;
  - (5) A Committee on Ways and Means.
- (2) Other Convention Committees may be appointed in like manner as may be required.
- (3) The majority of any Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.
- (4) All Committee reports shall be presented in writing and signed by the Committee Chair.
- (5) Unless otherwise directed, all Convention Committees shall be deemed to be discharged upon the adjournment of the last session of the Convention.

DUTIES OF COMMITTEES

311. (1) The Committee on Arrangements shall make the necessary arrangements for the holding of the Convention.
- (2) The Committee on Constitution and Laws shall report all proposed amendments of the By-Laws to the Convention.
- (3) (a) The Committee on Credentials shall examine and report upon the credentials filed by delegates.

Note: The Provincial Executive Director shall ensure that authorized credential forms are in the hands of all Branch Secretaries not less than three (3) weeks prior to the opening of the Convention.
- (b) Subject to an appeal, the Committee shall be the authority determining the status of every person attending the Convention.
- (4) The Committee on Resolutions shall receive all resolutions for amendment or consolidation and for report to the Convention.

- (5) The Committee on Ways and Means shall examine or cause to be examined the financial standing of the Command and recommend the per capita tax to be paid. The Provincial Treasurer shall be the Chair of this Committee.
- (6) (a) The Office of the Provincial Executive Director shall prepare the Agenda and Convention Procedure Report, subject to the approval of the Provincial President and Provincial Chair respectively, and it shall be contained in the Proceedings Booklet.
- (b) The Agenda shall provide for the presentation of the report of the Constitution and Laws Committee prior to the Nomination of Officers, and for the presentation of the Report of the Ways and Means Committee, prior to the Election of Officers.
- (c) The rules of procedure adopted by the latest Convention shall form an integral part of this By-Law, and when applicable, shall govern at all Meetings of the Command, Council, District, or Zone.

RESOLUTIONS

312. (1) Every Branch, Command, and Standing Committee of Command may submit resolutions.
- (2) The Committee on Resolutions shall not be required to consider any resolution received by Command less than one hundred and twelve (112) days prior to the Convention.
- (3) Resolutions received less than one hundred and twelve (112) days prior to the opening date of the Convention shall be referred to the respective Provincial Committee for its comment prior to review and consideration by Council.
- (4) (a) The foregoing sub-section does not preclude the presentation of an emergency resolution, approved by a Branch, and placed before the Convention by an Accredited Delegate, subject to the approval of a two-thirds majority of those in attendance and present on the Convention floor.
- (b) Only those resolutions dealing with matters that require immediate action and which cannot be dealt with by Committee, as noted in Section 312. (3) shall be considered.
- (5) A copy of the proceedings booklet containing all resolutions for the Convention shall be forwarded to each Branch for receipt at least thirty (30) days prior to the Convention.
- (6) Only resolutions that are national in nature and concurred by the Command shall be forwarded to Dominion Command for their consideration and action.
313. (1) In the event that any Committee reporting to the Convention does not concur in or does not report on any resolution duly submitted for its consideration, any Accredited Delegate may, subject to the following conditions, request that such resolution emanating from within their own District be presented to the Convention:
  - (a) The request has the support of a majority vote of the caucus from that delegate's District as confirmed by a written certificate to that effect signed by the appropriate District Commander or Chair of the Caucus.
  - (b) The request to introduce such resolution has been submitted in writing on a form provided by Command.
  - (c) The request shall be submitted to the Provincial Chair not later than 12:00 noon on the second business day of the Convention.
- (2) These conditions having been completed; such delegate may present the resolution while resolutions dealing with the general topic with which the resolution is concerned are before the Convention.

ELECTION OF PROVINCIAL SENIOR ELECTED OFFICERS

314. (1) The Senior Elected Officers, excluding the Immediate Past Provincial President, shall be elected at the Convention.
- (2) An Election Chair shall be appointed by the Provincial President. Chairing of the Convention shall be periodically turned over to the Election Chair, when necessary, to conduct Nominations for and Elections of the Officers of the Command.
315. The procedure of election as referred to in Subsection 314. (1) shall be as follows:
- (1) Oral nominations shall be made by Accredited Delegates from the floor of the Convention for each elective Office in the Order of Precedence as found in Subsection 601. (1) of these By-Laws.
- (2) The Election Chair shall canvas each Nominee prior to the Election respecting their intent to stand for the subject Office.
- (3) The qualifications of each Nominee may be presented, at the will of the Convention, to a maximum time as set by the Election Chair.
- (4) All Nominees defeated for a superior Office to that for which they are running shall be automatically nominated for the next subordinate Office. This provision shall not apply to the Offices of Provincial Chair and Provincial Treasurer.

VOTING AND PROXIES

316. Other than on a ballot vote, delegates to the Convention shall have one (1) vote each.
317. (1) Any delegate, accredited by the Branch of which they are a Member, may carry, in addition to their own credentials, up to four (4) credentials from the Branch of which they are a Member, or any other Branch or Branches within the Command.
- (2) A Member may be a delegate of another Branch within the Command but may not carry proxies.
318. Proxies must be registered at the opening of the Convention and may only be used when an election ballot vote is required.
319. Every proxy, to be valid, shall include a credential certificate naming the delegate entitled to register such proxy.
320. Except for election of Officers, voting at the Convention shall be by a voice or standing vote (unless a vote by ballot is directed by the Provincial Chair, or if demanded by at least twenty percent (20%) of the delegates on the floor of the Convention), and such vote shall not include proxy votes.
321. (1) When balloting is for the election of a single Office, the Candidate receiving the majority of the votes cast shall be elected.
- (2) If no candidate receives a majority of the total votes cast on the first ballot, a second ballot shall be held, deleting the name of the candidate receiving the least number of votes on the first ballot.
322. (1) When balloting is for the election of three (3) Provincial Vice-Presidents, delegates may vote for up to three (3) names on a single ballot form.
- (2) A person may not vote more than once on the ballot for any candidate.
- (3) The ballots shall be in a form approved by the Command.

- (4) Ballots not marked in conformity to this section shall not be counted.
- (5) The candidates receiving a majority of the ballots cast shall be elected.
- (6) If one or more but not all candidates receive a majority on the first ballot, a second ballot shall be held for the Offices remaining unfilled.
- (7) Whenever on any ballot no candidate is elected, the name of the candidate who received the lowest number of votes shall be deleted from subsequent ballots provided that:
  - (a) If the total of the votes received by the two (2) with the lowest number of votes is less than the votes received by the candidate with the next lowest number of votes, the names of the two (2) with the lowest number of votes shall be deleted from subsequent ballots; and
  - (b) Similarly, if the three (3) candidates having the lowest number of votes do not have a total vote equal to that of the candidate having the next lowest number of votes, their names shall be deleted from subsequent ballots.

DOMINION EXECUTIVE COUNCIL REPRESENTATIVES

- 323. The Provincial President shall be the representative on the Dominion Executive Council. If the Command shall become entitled to additional representatives on the Dominion Executive Council, such additional representatives shall be appointed by the Administrative Committee.
- 324. In the absence or disability of the Provincial President, the Provincial First Vice-President shall, for the time being, be the representative on the Dominion Executive Council.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

- 325. (1) An Annual General Meeting shall be held on the date of and during the Council Meeting in each off-Convention year and it shall assume a separate and distinct entity during the course of the primary Meeting.
- (2) The minimum agenda of the Meeting shall be as follows:
  - (a) Presentation of the Audited Financial Statements.
  - (b) Approval of the Auditors.
- (3) Members wishing to make comment or raise questions on any Agenda Item may do so by written submission to Command for consideration at the Meeting, if received no later than thirty (30) days prior to the Meeting.
- (4) A quorum for the Meeting shall be fifteen (15) Members of The Royal Canadian Legion who must be Members in good standing of a Branch within the jurisdiction of the Command.

NOTICE OF ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

- 326. (1) Notice shall be distributed to all Branches within the Command not more than ninety (90) days and not less than thirty (30) days before the Annual General Meeting via an All-Branch Mailing.
- (2) The Notice shall contain the following information respecting the Annual General Meeting:
  - (a) A compliance statement re the Canada Not-for-Profit Corporations Act requiring the call of the Meeting.

- (b) The date, time, and location.
  - (c) The Meeting Agenda.
  - (d) The Command address for receipt of written submissions from Members.
  - (e) The Command Website address for the reference of Annual General Meeting documentation.
- (3) Documentation pertaining to the Annual General Meeting shall be available on the Command website (www.on.legion.ca) at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the Meeting or upon written request received at Command at least fourteen (14) days prior to the Meeting from a Member who has enclosed a self-addressed stamped envelope.

ARTICLE IV - PROVINCIAL EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

401. (1) The composition of the Council is noted hereunder:

Senior Elected Officers;
 District Commanders;
 Deputy District Commanders;
 Zone Commanders;
 Appointed representatives to the Dominion Executive Council;
 All Standing Committee Chairs of the Command.

(2) The Council may by resolution, certify Branches of such additional Special Sections, as may be established by Dominion Command from time to time and when a Branch or Branches of such Special Section have been certified within the Command, that Special Section shall be represented by an additional Member on the Council.

DUTIES OF COUNCIL

402. The Council shall have the power to perform and carry to completion work entrusted to it by the last Convention or this By-Law, to fill all elective vacancies between Conventions, to supply any omissions of the Convention and generally to carry on the business of the Command in any manner not inconsistent with the expressed will of the Convention.

403. The Provincial Treasurer, or such other Officers as authorized by the Council, shall countersign all cheques issued and all promissory notes, bills of exchange and other instruments involving any liability of the Command.

404. Any Officer or employee handling funds of the Command shall be adequately insured.

COUNCIL MEETINGS

405. (1) At least one Meeting of the Council shall be held each year.

(2) A majority of the Members of the Council shall form a quorum.

(3) Only Members of the Council shall have the right to make or second motions, make nominations, or vote at Meetings.

(4) The Council shall not be obliged to admit any person other than its Members to its deliberations.

(5) The Minutes of all Council Meetings shall be mailed forthwith to the Members of Council.

ARTICLE V - COMMITTEES

ADMINISTRATIVE COMMITTEE

501. The Administrative Committee shall consist of the Senior Elected Officers, District Commanders, and the Dominion Council Representative(s).
502. (1) The Administrative Committee shall have the power to hold Meetings, transact business and carry out the duties between Meetings of the Council.

- (2) The Provincial President shall be a Member ex-officio of all Committees under the direct authority of the Council and may delegate such representation to any Senior Elected Officer.
- (3) The Provincial President shall preside at the opening and closing of all Conventions and Meetings of Council, and shall exercise a general supervision and control over the Officers, Members, and business of the Command.
- (4) The Provincial President shall call all Conventions and Meetings of Council as provided herein, or in The General By-Laws of the Legion, and shall transact such other business as may pertain to their Office.
- (5) In the absence or disability of the Provincial President, all vested rights and powers shall, for the time being, be vested in the Provincial First Vice-President. In the absence or disability of the Provincial President and Provincial First Vice-President, all of the aforesaid rights and powers shall for the time being, be vested in a Provincial Vice-President appointed by the Administrative Committee for that purpose.
- (6) The Provincial Chair shall preside over the debate and transaction of business of the Convention, Administrative Committee Meetings, and Council Meetings. The Provincial Vice-Chair shall assume these duties in the absence of, or at the request of the Provincial Chair.
603. The Provincial Treasurer shall:
- (1) Ensure that all funds received by the Command are deposited in the appropriate account.
- (2) Ensure that an accurate and true account is maintained of all monies received or paid out by the Command, and that a complete record is kept of all financial transactions of each department of the Command and produced whenever required by an appropriate authority.
- (3) Scrutinize all Command expenditures and initiate enquiries, where necessary, to ensure that at all times the complete information respecting all financial matters pertaining to the Command is available.
- (4) Properly supervise all financial matters at all times and together with the Finance Committee; with input from the Provincial Executive Director, Provincial Assistant Executive Director, and Command Accountant; prepare an annual budget covering all financial activities of the Command.
- (5) Present quarterly, to the Members of the Administrative Committee, a statement of the actual expenditures in relation to the budget and draw attention to any actual or anticipated expenditure in excess of the amount included in the budget for that specific purpose.
- (6) Report to the Administrative Committee all financial matters which are felt necessary to be brought to their attention, and present further reports as directed by the said Committee.
- (7) Ensure that an audited financial statement of the Command shall be furnished to all Branches annually.

604. Meetings of the Council and the Administrative Committee shall be called by the Provincial Executive Director at the direction of the Provincial President or a majority of the Senior Elected Officers.
605. In addition to the duties prescribed by the Act, The General By-Laws of the Legion and as provided by this By-Law, the Officers of the Command shall perform such services as may pertain to their several Offices and as may be determined by the Council.

EXPENSES

606. (1) Members of the Council, employees of the Command and other persons when duly authorized, shall be entitled to reimbursement of expenses incurred when attending Conventions, Meetings of the Council or when otherwise engaged upon the business of the Legion within their jurisdiction and as may be approved by the Administrative Committee.
- (2) Reference to a Command expense within these By-Laws may be found in the provisions of the current Ontario Provincial Command Expense Account Policy which shall identify the eligible Offices, their duties, and events in which they are entitled to reimbursement of expenses.

VACANCIES

607. (1) In the event of the resignation, death, or incapacity of the Provincial President, the office shall be succeeded by the Provincial First Vice-President.
- (2) In the event of the resignation, succession to the Provincial Presidency, death, or permanent incapacity of the Provincial First Vice-President, the succession to this Office will be open to the three (3) Provincial Vice-Presidents.
- (3) The Provincial Chair shall ascertain which of the three (3) Provincial Vice-Presidents aspire to be a candidate for the vacant Office of Provincial First Vice-President, and shall conduct a vote, if necessary, of the Council, to determine which Provincial Vice-President shall succeed to this Office.
- (4) The Provincial Vice-President receiving the greatest number of votes shall be elected as the Provincial First Vice-President. In the event of a tie, the Provincial Vice-President receiving the least number of votes shall be eliminated and another vote shall be taken.
- (5) Whenever a vacancy occurs among the three (3) Provincial Vice-Presidents for any reason, including election to higher Office, the Council shall fill the vacancy by electing, from its Members, a new Provincial Vice-President.
- (6) In the event of a vacancy occurring in the Office of Provincial Chair, the Provincial Vice-Chair shall succeed to the Office of Provincial Chair.
- (7) If a vacancy occurs in the Office of the Provincial Treasurer or Provincial Vice-Chair, the Provincial President shall recommend a successor to fill the Office, for the remainder of the term, to the Administrative Committee for approval, and such appointment shall be subject to confirmation by the Council at its next Meeting, if appropriate.
- (8) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a vacancy should occur in the Office of a Provincial Vice-President, or the Provincial Vice-Chair within nine (9) months of the next Convention, such Office may be left vacant upon the recommendation of the Provincial President to the Administrative Committee for approval, and subject to confirmation by the Council at its next Meeting, if appropriate.
- (9) In the event of the death, resignation, or inability to act of the Immediate Past Provincial President, the Provincial President shall recommend a Past Provincial President to fill the vacancy, for the remainder of the term, to the Administrative Committee for approval, and such appointment shall be subject to confirmation by the Council at its next Meeting, if appropriate.

EMPLOYEES

608. The Provincial Executive Director and the Provincial Assistant Executive Director shall be appointed by and be under the control of the Administrative Committee.

ARTICLE VII – DISTRICTS

ORGANIZATION

701. (1) The Command shall be organized into such Districts as the Command may from time to time determine.
- (2) The District is subject to the jurisdiction of the Command.
- (3) The District shall embrace all Branches within its territorial limits as set forth by the Command.

DISTRICT CONVENTIONS

702. (1) The District Convention shall consist of delegates from Branches within the District and in addition, the Members of the District Council.
- (2) For the purpose of determining the number of Accredited Delegates which a Branch shall be entitled to send to the Convention, the Membership strength of a Branch shall be the number of fully paid-up voting Members carried on the files of the Command at the end of the preceding calendar year. Each Branch shall be entitled to certify one (1) Accredited Delegate for the first fifty (50) voting Members or fraction thereof and one (1) for each additional one hundred (100) voting Members or fraction thereof.
- (3) Each District shall hold a District Convention prior to the next Provincial Convention for the purpose of electing District Officers for the ensuing term, provided that such District Convention may also deal with other business.
- (4) A maximum of two (2) District Conventions shall be held annually at the request of the District Commander or District Council, at Command expense, provided at least one (1) District Convention is held each year.

LEVY

703. The Command may authorize a District Convention to raise a per capita levy on each Branch within the said District jurisdiction to meet such expenditures as may be authorized by the District Council.

- (3) (a) A maximum of two (2) Zone Council Meetings shall be held annually at Command expense.
(b) The Meeting shall be held at the call of the Zone Commander or by the Secretary on receipt of a written request signed by a majority of the Zone Council. A majority of Zone Council shall form a quorum.
- (4) A maximum of two (2) visits by a Zone Commander to a Branch will be allowed annually within the Zone, at Command expense, unless otherwise directed through the Office of the Provincial President, other than the annual visit.
- (5) In the event of a dispute relating to Branch territory between Branches in a Zone, the matter shall be decided by the Zone Council.
- (6) The Zone Officers and Members of the Zone Council shall serve without remuneration.
- (7) The Zone Council may set any remuneration for the Zone Secretary, Zone Treasurer, or Zone Secretary-Treasurer and such Zone Officer(s) if paid, shall not be a Member of the Zone Council.

ARTICLE IX – BRANCHES

901. The standard Branch By-Laws referred to in Section 513 of The General By-Laws of the Legion appear herein as an appendix titled 'The General By-Laws for Branches', and shall form an integral part of The General By-Laws of Command.

BRANCH REGULATIONS

902. (1) A Branch shall prepare and maintain its own Branch Regulations in reference to those permitted circumstances as noted in The General By-Laws for Branches.
- (2) (a) The creation or amendment of any Branch Regulation shall be the subject of a motion of which notice shall have been given at the previous Meeting of the Branch. Such Notice of Motion shall include a document stating the wording of the proposed addition or amendment and both documents shall be dated and signed on or before their tabling at a General Meeting.
- (b) The President, or their designate, shall act on behalf of the Executive Committee respecting any proposal originating from the said Committee which falls under the provisions of this section.
- (c) A motion to create or amend the Branch Regulations must receive the approval of at least two-thirds of the voting Members present at the Meeting of the Branch to become effective upon Certification by the Command.
- (d) Any Branch Regulation may only be amended once during any Term of Office.
903. (1) All Branches shall submit the required copies of their Amended Branch Regulations to Command for review and certification at the end of the calendar year in which additions or amendments have been made to the document. Should a Branch not make any additions or amendments during the specified time, they will not be required to submit copies of their Branch Regulations to Command for certification.
- (2) Any Branch making an addition or amendment to their Branch Regulations shall within one (1) month of the approval by the Branch forward the required copies of each document used in the said process to Command for review and certification.

TRUSTEES

904. Branches cannot elect or appoint a Board of Trustees to manage the affairs of the Branch or to hold in trust any real property that may be held or acquired by a Branch.

REAL PROPERTY

905. The real property that may be held or acquired by any Branch shall be held in the name of such Branch.

PER CAPITA TAX

906. Each Branch shall remit per capita tax as levied from time to time by either a Dominion or Provincial Convention to Dominion or Provincial Command, respectively.

FISCAL YEAR

907. The fiscal year for Branches and the Command shall be the 1st day of June to the 31st day of May of the following year except for Poppy Trust Funds which shall commence on the 1st day of January and terminate on the 31st day of December in each calendar year.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

908. Every Branch shall declare in its Branch Regulations:

- (a) When the Annual General Meeting for the presentation of reports from the Senior Elected Officers and Committees will take place.
- (b) When the Annual or Biennial Election of Offices and Executive Committee Members will take place.

QUALIFICATION TO HOLD OFFICE

909. (1) Only Ordinary, Life, Associate, and Affiliate Voting Members in good standing shall have the right to vote or hold Office at any level of the Legion.
- (2) No Member who is a full-time, regular part-time or elect-to-work employee of any Branch, or Command, or any organization thereof, who receives directly or indirectly any salary or wages for or on account of any service rendered to the Branch or Command or organization thereof, shall hold any Executive position in the Legion.
  - (3) If an employee is successful in their bid for Office, they must resign their paid position before their Term of Office can commence.
  - (4) No Member shall hold more than one (1) elected Office at the same level. Further, if a Secretary, Treasurer or Secretary-Treasurer is appointed, a senior elected Officer (President or Vice-President) shall not hold that Office.
  - (5) The Executive position of Ladies' Auxiliary Liaison Officer shall not be held by the Branch President, and where possible, should not be held by a Member of the Ladies' Auxiliary.
  - (6) No Member shall simultaneously hold the positions of Branch President and President of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Branch.

NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

910. (1) (a) A Branch may, by Branch Regulation, hold an advance poll on the date of the election and set the desired start time at any hour between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and the commencement of the Election Meeting.
- (b) If an advance poll is held, nominations shall not be re-opened at the Election Meeting. The candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected.
- (2) At elections where no advance poll has been held, nominations for Branch Offices may be re-opened at the Election Meeting.
  - (3) The voting for election of Branch President and Branch Vice-Presidents shall be by ballot except in cases of acclamation. In order to be elected to Office, a candidate must receive a majority of the total ballots cast and if there are more than two (2) candidates and none receives the required majority, the candidate receiving the least number of votes shall be withdrawn from the election and the voting shall continue until one (1) candidate receives the required majority.
  - (4) The Election Chair, upon the report of the Chief Scrutineer for such elections, shall report to the Meeting after each vote, the total ballots cast, the number of spoiled ballots, if any, the name of the successful candidate or, if no candidate has received the required majority, the name of the candidate who received the least number of votes.
  - (5) All polling at an Election Meeting must be continuous and completed on the date of the election. An Election Meeting shall not be adjourned to the next or subsequent days to permit further balloting.

TERM OF OFFICE

911. (1) Elected Members shall assume Office on June 1st and the Term of Office shall be from June 1st of the election year to May 31st of the following year for a one (1) year term or to May 31st of the second following year if the Term of Office is for two (2) years by an approved Branch Regulation. This Term of Office shall also apply to all Standing Committee Chairs, with the exclusion of the Track and Field Chair, whose term shall commence on 1 August and end 31 July of the year in which the applicable Branch term ends.
- (2) All Members elected or appointed to an Office shall be installed in accordance with the Ritual found in the current edition of the Ritual, Awards and Protocol Manual before the date they assume Office.
- (3) Any duly approved change by a Branch to its Term of Office will only take effect upon the expiration of the present Term of Office of that Branch.

VACANCIES

912. (1) Where a Branch has three (3) Vice-Presidents and a vacancy occurs in the Office of President or First Vice-President or Second Vice-President, the next ranking Vice-President shall succeed to the vacant Office and where a vacancy is created by such elevation, the next ranking Vice-President shall succeed to that Office. A Vice-President who succeeds to a higher Office in accordance with this provision shall hold their new Office until the next election of Branch Officers.
- (2) In the event of a vacancy occurring in the Office of Third Vice-President or Executive Member, the Branch President shall fill such vacancy by appointment, such appointment to be subject to confirmation by the Membership of the Branch at its next General Meeting.
- (3) Where a Branch has two (2) Vice-Presidents, then the procedure outlined in the aforementioned paragraph, shall apply to a vacancy in the Office of Second Vice-President.
- (4) In the event of the death, resignation, or inability to act of the Immediate Past Branch President, the Branch President shall appoint, for approval by the Executive Committee, a former Branch President to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term.
- (5) Any request by a Member of the Executive Committee for a Leave of Absence in excess of one (1) month must be approved by the Executive Committee and ratified at the next General Meeting. Such Leave of Absence shall not be for a period longer than three (3) months unless a supplemental request has been received and approved as noted above prior to the expiry date of the initial request.
- (6) Any Member of the Executive Committee, who fails to attend a set number of Meetings, as prescribed in The General By-Laws for Branches, shall be considered to have abandoned their position.

BRANCH EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

913. (1) Each Branch shall appoint the following Chairs who shall be Members of the Executive Committee of the Branch and shall be the official recipients of all correspondence relating to their respective Committees:

Leadership Development;
Legion Seniors;
Membership;

Poppy;
Public Relations;
Sports;
Track and Field;
Veterans Services;
Youth Education.

914. Branch Executive Committees shall exercise complete autonomy over the business operation of licensed premises insofar as the regulations of the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario may permit.
915. Insofar as it may relate to the operations of the functions of the Branch and subject to the control of the General, Special General, or Annual General Meetings, the Executive Committee shall have all of the power of the Branch except the appointment of the Parties completing the Financial Review; the amendment of the Branch Regulations; or the amendment of the Branch Clubhouse Rules.

BRANCH RECORDS

916. The Executive Committee shall meet at least monthly, on a day to be fixed by the Committee or at the call of the Branch President for the passing of accounts, the transaction of current business, the examination and discussion of any suggestions made to it, for the general welfare of the Branch or Legion and such other business as may be introduced.
917. Each Branch shall conduct its business and keep its records in one (1) of the two (2) official languages.

NOTIFICATIONS RE MEETINGS OF THE BRANCH

918. (1) A Meeting Notification shall be communicated to every Member of the Branch in good standing for receipt at least seven (7) days in advance of each General Meeting and Annual General Meeting, if scheduled for a day and time other than that specified in their Branch Regulations.
- (2) A Meeting Notification shall be communicated to every Member of the Branch in good standing for receipt at least fourteen (14) days in advance of any General Meeting held or Special General Meeting called to discuss mortgaging, leasing, or conveying of Branch real property.
- (3) A Meeting Notification shall be communicated to every Member of the Branch in good standing for receipt at least seven (7) days in advance of any Special General Meeting called to discuss matters other than mortgaging, leasing, or conveying of Branch real property.
- (4) A Meeting Notification required under these, or any other provision of The General By-Laws, shall be communicated to all Members entitled to attend the subject Meeting via one (1) of the following methods.
- (a) By personal hand delivery; or
(b) By Canada Post, or another courier service; or
(c) Personal delivery to the Member's last known address; or
(d) By electronic communication.
- (5) Each Meeting Notification shall include the following items:
- (a) The date, time, and location of the Meeting.
(b) The purpose of the Meeting.
(c) The Section(s) of The General By-Laws applicable to the call and distribution of same.

- (6) The Branch shall maintain a copy of each Meeting Notification and a record of the method by which each Member was duly notified respecting same.
- (7) Each Branch Member shall:
  - (a) Notify their Branch in writing of the method(s) by which they wish to receive Meeting Notifications.
  - (b) Provide their personal postal mailing address to their Branch and ensure that the information is kept current.
  - (c) Provide their current electronic contact information to their Branch, should they wish to receive any or all Meeting Notifications via this means.
  - (d) Activate 'to follow' or subscribe to any social media facility provided by their Branch, should they wish to receive any or all Meeting Notifications via this means.
- (8) All reasonable means and efforts must be made by the Branch to notify all Members when any scheduled Meeting of the Branch is cancelled and/or rescheduled due to exigent circumstances and the required Meeting Notification cannot be completed by the prescribed means and within the time periods contained herein.
- (9) Meeting notification does not replace the requirement to provide Notice of Motion for any item that requires a significant financial decision or is a major decision of the Branch. Meeting notification may however include a Notice of Motion. A Notice of Motion is presented and tabled at one General, Special General or Annual General meeting of the Branch. The motion is then made at the next General, Special General or Annual General meeting of the Branch at which time it shall be discussed and voted on.

POPPY

919. (1) If a Branch fails to submit a Branch Status Report Poppy Trust Fund to Command by the 31st day of January each year covering its activities and disbursements in the preceding calendar year, it shall forfeit the right to hold future Poppy Campaigns.
- (2) If a Branch uses any products in its Poppy Campaign that have not been manufactured by an approved supplier, it shall, at the discretion of the Provincial President, forfeit the right to hold future Poppy Campaigns.
- (3) A Branch which has forfeited the right to hold a Poppy Campaign in accordance with the foregoing, may appeal such action to the Administrative Committee.

POPPY TRUST FUND COMMITTEE

920. Each Branch, or group of Branches, if conducting a joint Poppy Campaign, shall establish a Poppy Trust Fund Committee which shall be responsible for the accounting, disbursement, and reporting the status of their Poppy Trust Fund.

ADMINISTRATION OF POPPY TRUST FUND

921. (1) All monies received from a Poppy Campaign shall be deposited in a separate Poppy Trust Fund Account held in a financial institution approved by the Branch or group of Branches, if conducting a joint Poppy Campaign.
- (2) The Branch Poppy Committee Chair shall be one (1) of three (3) persons, with the other two (2) identified in the Branch Regulations, designated, and authorized to initiate and complete financial transactions involving the Branch Poppy Trust Fund Account.

- (3) To ensure veterans' needs remain as confidential as possible, one (1) of the persons designated and authorized to initiate and complete financial transactions involving the Poppy Trust Fund Account held as a result of a joint Poppy Campaign, shall be an Officer or past Officer of any of the participating Branches.

FINANCE

922. (1) All accounts payable shall be designated by the Branch Executive Committee for payment via cheque, electronic funds transfer, credit card, debit card or a petty cash fund. When credit or debit cards are to be used, a signed requisition form with two authorized signatures will be required.
- (2) Payments shall only be initiated and completed by those persons holding an Office or Position that has been designated and authorized for this purpose in the appropriate Branch Regulations.
- (3) Provisions found in The General By-Laws for Branches of the Ontario Provincial Command shall prescribe the limitations respecting the applicable monetary values appropriate to the method of payment and the eligibility requirements related to the persons involved in the process.
- (4) Each Branch shall be required to provide to its Zone Commander at the time of the annual visit a copy of its Financial Review Report on a standardized form.
- (5) Any Branch, at the direction of Command, shall conduct an external audit or an External Review Engagement of its financial records and/or Poppy Trust Fund. Any or all costs incurred by Command may be assessed against the subject Branch.

LIABILITY COVERAGE

923. The Executive Committee of each Branch in the Command shall be responsible to ensure that all Officers, Members, and employees handling funds of the Branch be adequately insured.

CLUBS WITHIN BRANCHES

924. Branch Regulations may provide for the formation of organized groups within the Branch, providing they are administered by the Branch Officers and the funds are administered by the Branch Treasurer.

FILMING INSIDE OF BRANCHES RESTRICTED

925. No motion picture or video tape recording for public viewing in any theatre or cinema or on television, or media photography, which includes evidence of alcoholic beverage, shall be made by any person inside any Legion's licensed premises.

REPRESENTATION AT DISTRICT AND ZONE CONVENTIONS

926. Branch Presidents shall be responsible to ensure that their Branch is represented at their respective District and Zone Conventions.

SALARIED OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

927. (1) All salaried Officers and employees of a Branch shall be appointed by, and be under the control of the Branch Executive Committee. Notice of termination shall be in compliance with the latest edition of the Employment Standards Act and any other relevant legislation in Ontario.
- (2) All hiring, terminations of employment and conditions of employment must be in accordance with Federal and Provincial laws, including any Act or Code respecting

Human Rights. This includes notice on termination and pay in lieu of notice.

SURRENDER OF BRANCH CHARTER

928. (1) The real or personal property of any Branch upon the surrender or revocation of its charter shall be vested to the Command and shall be used to pay or otherwise satisfy the liabilities of the Branch.
- (2) (a) A Branch may apply to the Administrative Committee for any or all of the surplus remaining, after all Branch debts and liabilities have been satisfied, to be used to the benefit of the community in which the Branch is located.
- (b) The Administrative Committee may consent to such exemption respecting the disposition of such property only when it is satisfied:
- (i) That a responsible continuing community organization exists to which the property can be transferred or otherwise disposed of to or for the benefit of the community; and
- (ii) Such community organization has agreed, in writing, to maintain and use the property for the benefit of the community subject to the terms and conditions as deemed advisable by the Administrative Committee.
- (3) Any surplus remaining shall be deposited into the General Reserve Fund to be administered and controlled by the Command. The purpose of the fund will be to generate revenue in the form of income from investments which will be used to offset the General Expenses of the Command.
- (4) The disposition of any or all of the income from investments accrued from the aforementioned General Reserve Fund shall be as follows:
- (a) Annually, a percentage of the net income from investments will be used to offset the General Expenses of the Command, with the remaining amount used to build the General Reserve. The maximum amount used to offset expenses will be seventy percent (70%) of the annual investment return.
- (b) Should the fund continue to build in the future to a point that the total annual income from investments is greater than the annual General Expenses of the Command, then the annual per capita rate charged by the Command to its Members will be reduced.
- (5) No property shall be distributed to or for the benefit of any Member of a Branch during or after its dissolution.

ARTICLE X – GENERAL PROVISIONS

BADGE

1001. All Membership badges and Legion insignia remain the property of the Legion and may be worn only by Members in good standing or as authorized by Dominion Command.

HONOURS AND AWARDS

1002. Branches, Zones, and Districts may select recipients and submit recommendations to Command for Legion Awards. All such recommendations, prior to Command approval, where appropriate, shall be referred to the Provincial Honours and Awards Committee to ensure that the submission has complied with all processes and procedures outlined in the most current edition of the Ritual, Awards and Protocol Manual.

COMPLAINT FILING FEE

1003. The following shall apply in all instances respecting a mandatory Complaint Filing Fee received by a Branch or Command as required under the provisions of Article III of The General By-Laws.

- (1) The Complaint Filing Fee shall be returned forthwith to the submitting Party if the subject Complaint is declared to be improperly lodged.
- (2) (a) If the subject Complaint is found to be properly lodged, the Complaint Filing Fee shall be held in abeyance until the expiration of all available avenues under The General By-Laws have been exhausted.
(b) Once the final disposition, after all appeals, if any, are heard, the Complaint Filing Fee shall then be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of The General By-Laws.

APPOINTMENTS

1004. (1) (a) An Appointee to any Position created at any level of the Command shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing authority.
(b) The Term of any appointment shall expire at the end of the applicable Term of Office unless otherwise specified within the enacting provision or by the appointing authority.
(c) Termination of any appointment prior to the end of the applicable Term may be done only for cause and only by the appointing authority.
(d) Any Appointee may appeal their removal for cause in accordance with the Administrative Instructions developed by Dominion Command specifically for such an appeal.
(e) The Appeal Committee of the Command may either confirm the removal or direct reinstatement.
- (2) The person on whose authority any individual is appointed to any position within the Command is deemed to be the appointing authority for the purposes of this Section, regardless of whether such appointment required ratification or confirmation before becoming finalized.
- (3) For the purpose of Honours and Awards, any appointment by an appointing authority shall not be deemed to be in effect until the date that such appointment receives the appropriate initial approval or ratification.

BRANCH CLUBHOUSE RULES

1005. (1) All Branches that maintain Branch Clubhouse Rules shall forward the required copies of the current document to Command for retention on file and future reference, if necessary.
- (2) Any Branch making an addition or amendment to their Branch Clubhouse Rules shall, within one (1) month of the approval by the Branch, forward the required copies of the amended document to Command.

COMPLAINTS AGAINST DISTRICT / ZONE COUNCIL MEMBERS

1006. Where a Complaint is lodged against a current or former Member of a District or Zone Council, and where it relates to an alleged offence arising out of their duties while serving or having served in this capacity, the Member shall be considered an Officer for the purposes of the application of the provisions of Article III of The General By-Laws of the Legion.

LOTTERIES

1007. (1) All components under the jurisdiction of Command shall secure the proper licence from the appropriate agency of the Government of Ontario prior to the holding of any lottery type event including, but not limited to, raffles, bingos, break open tickets, catch the ace, or any other lottery scheme defined in the Criminal Code of Canada and under the regulatory control of the Government of Ontario.'
- (2) (a) All proceeds from any lottery event shall be deposited into an account designated as a trust account by the financial institution in which it is held.
- (b) Lottery Licensees have the option of opening a trust account for each type of lottery event or consolidating trust accounts.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

1008. (1) Any request for a leave of absence, in excess of one (1) month, by a Member of the Provincial Executive Council, or any District Council, or any Zone Council, shall be in writing and shall be submitted for approval consideration as follows:
- (a) Any Senior Elected Officer of Command shall be submitted to the Administrative Committee.
- (b) Any elected District or Zone Officer shall be submitted to the appropriate District or Zone Council.
- (c) Any appointed Member of the Provincial Executive Council, District Council, or Zone Council shall be submitted to the Appointing Authority.
- (2) Such leave of absence shall not be for a period longer than three (3) months unless a supplemental written request has been received and approved as noted above prior to the expiry date of the initial request.
- (3) When a leave of absence is approved, the appropriate Council may, at its discretion, appoint and approve an eligible Member to fill any such temporary vacancy.

ALL COUNCIL LEVELS ELIGIBILITY

1009. To be eligible to be elected or appointed to any Office or Position on Council, District Council, or Zone Council, a Member must be a Member in good standing of a Branch within the jurisdiction of the level to which the subject Office or Position applies.

DISTRICT AND ZONE GOVERNANCE

1010. (1) All Districts and Zones within the Command shall maintain a governance document(s) in the form of By-Laws, or a Policy and Procedure Manual, or both.
- (2) The governance document in By-Law format shall contain elaboration on the applicable general matters cited in The General By-Laws of Ontario Provincial Command and shall include, although not limited to, matters respecting Subordinate Officer(s) numbers, Finance, the holding and planning of Council Meetings and Conventions, and any other matter of reference applicable to the level at which it shall apply.

- (3) The governance document in a Policy and Procedure Manual format shall contain the above cited matters included in By-Laws and shall further include, although not limited to, all relevant operational policies and procedures applicable to each entity and employed during the course of doing business in the particular District or Zone.
- (4) The creation or amendment of any governance document shall comply with all current By-Laws and the Guidelines and Procedures available on the Command Website respecting such matters.
- (5) All required documents involved in the creation or amendment of any governance document shall be submitted to Command for review and certification within one (1) month of the approval by the particular District or Zone.

DISTRICT AND ZONE CONVENTION QUORUMS

1011. (1) Before a District or Zone Convention may be opened there shall be present thereat duly accredited representation of at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the Branches within the respective District or Zone.
- (2) A quorum for the transaction of business at any Convention convened by a District or Zone shall be the presence on the floor of the Convention chamber of at least fifty percent (50%) of the accredited representatives registered for that Convention, provided that if it is shown at any time during the Convention there is not a quorum, the Convention Chair will adjourn such Convention from time to time for the purpose of obtaining such a quorum.

ARTICLE XI – AFFILIATE NON-VOTING MEMBERS

1101. (1) Affiliate non-voting Membership is open to any citizen from an Allied country, excluding Canada and the Commonwealth, who is of federal voting age and is not eligible for ordinary, associate or affiliate voting Membership, and who supports the aims and objects of The Royal Canadian Legion. Affiliate non-voting Members shall have the same rights as all other Members except the rights to vote and hold Office.
- (2) A Member admitted under subsection (1) is not permitted to apply for voting status, unless otherwise qualified.
- Note: Affiliate non-voting Members are allowed to attend Branch Meetings and participate in debates but cannot enter into the voting process, including motions.

ARTICLE XII – LADIES' AUXILIAIRES

JURISDICTION / ZONE BOUNDARIES

1201. (1) Each Auxiliary shall be under the jurisdiction of the Legion Branch, provided the By-Laws or Branch Regulations of said Legion Branch are in accordance with The General By-Laws of The Royal Canadian Legion. Such jurisdiction, including requests in writing for financial assistance made to Auxiliaries shall be exercised by a General Meeting of the Legion Branch.
- (2) (a) The Provincial Command of the Ladies' Auxiliary shall be responsible for the development, maintenance, and review of their Zone structure to ensure that the boundary alignments are appropriate and meet the current Administrative needs of their Command.

- (b) Any modification to Zone boundaries shall only take effect upon the approval of Command.

DISPUTE

1202. (1) Where a dispute arises between a Branch and its Ladies' Auxiliary and such dispute cannot be resolved by agreement between the President of the Branch and the President of the Ladies' Auxiliary, then the President of the Branch shall appoint a Committee of three (3) Members of the Branch, one (1) of whom shall be appointed as the Chair, and the President of the Branch shall request the President of the Ladies' Auxiliary to appoint two (2) further Members from the Ladies' Auxiliary to this Committee. The Committee shall meet at a time and place designated by the Chair and shall investigate the dispute and shall report its findings, conclusions, and recommendations to the Branch Executive Committee.
- (2) Any decision rendered by the Branch Executive Committee after receipt of the report of the Committee shall be subject to the approval of Members of the Branch at the next General Meeting of the Branch.
- (3) The Ladies' Auxiliary may appeal to Command from a decision of the General Meeting of the Branch.

LIAISON OFFICER

1203. (1) Every Branch which has a Ladies' Auxiliary shall appoint a Liaison Officer who shall be a Member of the Branch Executive Committee and such Liaison Officer may attend all Executive Committee, General and Special General Meetings of the Ladies' Auxiliary at the discretion of the Branch. This position shall not be held by the Branch President and where possible should not be held by a Member of the Ladies' Auxiliary. The Executive Committee of a Branch and Executive Committee of its Ladies' Auxiliary shall hold a joint Meeting at least twice each year.
- (2) It shall be the duty of the Liaison Officer to attend General Meetings of the Auxiliary, when required. The Liaison Officer shall update the Ladies' Auxiliary on Branch initiatives and will report any issues of concern and information items arising from attending these Meetings to the Branch President and the Executive Committee of the Branch. The Liaison Officer exerts no authority or jurisdiction over the Ladies' Auxiliary and is not to become engaged in debate at these Meetings.

MINUTES

1204. Minutes of all Meetings held by a Ladies' Auxiliary shall be provided to its Branch for their information.

AUDIT

1205. (1) A Branch Executive Committee may appoint two (2) auditors from Branch Members to conduct the annual audit of its Auxiliary.
- (2) A copy of the audited financial statement of the Ladies' Auxiliary shall be provided to the Branch within thirty (30) days of its approval by the Auxiliary.

DONATIONS

1206. A Ladies' Auxiliary to a Branch may make donations or grants to other organizations or institutions annually up to two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) for each occasion without prior approval of a General meeting of the Branch. Any amount in excess of this must receive prior approval of a General meeting of the Branch.

FUNDS

1207. (1) A Branch may, by an approved Branch Regulation, limit the total amount of funds that its Ladies Auxiliary may retain at the end of each fiscal year.
- (2) A Branch may make funds available to its Ladies' Auxiliary upon receipt of a written request outlining the purpose for which such funds are required.
1208. Upon surrender of a Ladies' Auxiliary Charter, the assets of the Auxiliary shall be used to discharge any debts and liabilities of such Auxiliary. Any surplus thereof shall be vested equally between the Branch and the Ladies' Auxiliary Provincial Command.

EXPENDITURES

1209. All expenditures other than normal operating expenditures, in excess of two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) or the same amount as allowed by Branch Regulations to the Branch Executive Committee, made by a Ladies' Auxiliary, must be approved by the Branch at a General, Special General or Annual General Meeting prior to such expenditure being made; but notwithstanding the foregoing, the Ladies' Auxiliary shall make contributions to The Royal Canadian Legion and Ladies' Auxiliary Bursary Program.

REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY

1210. All real and personal property acquired by a Ladies' Auxiliary to a Branch, including all monies raised, shall be the property of the Branch to which it is an Auxiliary. This section is to be read in conjunction with S. 1208, which applies upon the surrender of a Ladies' Auxiliary Charter.

CHARTER

1211. (1) When a Branch surrenders its charter, or such charter is suspended, cancelled, or revoked, the charter of its Ladies' Auxiliary shall be simultaneously surrendered or suspended, cancelled, or revoked.
- (2) When a Ladies' Auxiliary charter is being surrendered, it shall be the responsibility of the Ladies' Auxiliary to a Branch to ensure that the Ladies' Auxiliary Branch Charter is forwarded to Ontario Provincial Command Headquarters. Relevant documentation is to be included such as Minutes of Meetings of the Auxiliary clearly showing approval, minutes of the Branch, as well as Ladies' Auxiliary Ontario Provincial Command approval of the disposition of any real property of the Ladies' Auxiliary.

BY-LAW AMENDMENTS

1212. Amendments to The General By-Laws of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Ontario Provincial Command, approved at a Convention of such Ladies' Auxiliary, shall be submitted for consideration to the next Meeting of the Provincial Constitution and Laws Committee, and shall receive Provincial Command approval when all recommendations are agreed.

DELEGATES TO LADIES' AUXILIARY CONVENTION

1213. The Ladies' Auxiliary of each Branch shall be entitled to send its delegates to Zone and Provincial Conventions of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Ontario Provincial Command.

NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

1214. Nomination and election of Officers and Executive Committee of the Ladies' Auxiliary shall be held at the same Meeting.

THE TERM “BRANCH”

1215. The term “Branch” when used in this section shall import “Command” when the context requires.

ARTICLE XIII - BY-LAWS

1301. (1) This By-Law became effective upon the conclusion of the Convention held in Ottawa, August 14th to 17th, 1949 and may be amended, repealed, or re-enacted at any Convention by a majority vote provided that one month’s notice has been given to the Command of such proposed amendment, unless such notice is waived by a two-thirds vote of the Convention.
- (2) These By-Laws and The General By-Laws for Branches may require amendments from time to time as a result of amendments approved by Dominion Convention or the Dominion Executive Council. Such amendments will automatically supersede the corresponding Section in the above By-Laws and must be incorporated therein.
- (3) Upon the adoption of this By-Law, all previous By-Laws of the Command are repealed but this repeal shall not affect the validity of any appointment made or thing done under the authority thereof.
- (4) Any Amendment to these By-Laws and/or The General By-Laws for Branches passed by Convention shall, unless otherwise specified, take effect on the first day of October following the approval date of such Amendment(s) by the Dominion Command Constitution and Laws Committee.
1302. All Amendments passed by the Provincial Executive Council between Conventions, and approved by Dominion Command, shall be presented for ratification with the report of the Constitution and Laws Committee at the next Convention. Any such Amendment not ratified, will cease to have effect at the end of the subject Convention.

As amended at the 51st Biennial Convention held at North Bay, Ontario,
May 14th to 17th, 2022 and as amended from time to time.

  - (n) Reschedule of Meeting re Statutory Holiday;
  - (o) Secretary Duty re New Members;
  - (p) Term of Office – Change to Two Years;
  - (q) Vice-Presidents – Increase to 3 from 2.
- (6) Forms and Templates are available for download from the Command Website to assist Branches in remaining current in this respect.
- (7) Attachment Forms specifically developed for use in the creation of Additional Duties of Officers, Duties, and Terms of Reference for Committees, and Orders of Business respecting all General Meetings.

THE GENERAL BY-LAWS FOR BRANCHES OF THE ONTARIO PROVINCIAL COMMAND

ARTICLE I – INTERPRETATION

101. Unless the context otherwise requires or is stated otherwise in the By-Laws.
- (1) BRANCH shall be a Branch of the Legion within the jurisdiction of the Ontario Provincial Command.
  - (2) BRANCH REGULATIONS approved by the Branch shall have the same authority and effect as these By-Laws and shall be a permissible extension to same.
  - (3) COMMAND shall be the Ontario Provincial Command of the Legion.
  - (4) FISCAL YEAR shall be the 1st day of June to the 31st day of May of the following year except for Poppy Trust Funds which shall commence on the 1st day of January and terminate on the 31st day of December in each calendar year.
  - (5) LEGION shall be The Royal Canadian Legion.
  - (6) MEETING OF THE BRANCH shall refer to a General Meeting, or a Special General Meeting, or an Annual General Meeting.
  - (7) MEMBER means a person who has been duly admitted to any of the categories of Membership provided for in The General By-Laws of the Legion, all of which confer equal privilege and standing at all levels without preference.
  - (8) MEMBER IN GOOD STANDING means a Member who is not under suspension or is not in arrears in payment of dues. However, a Member's rights and privileges may be limited or restricted in circumstances as described in The General By-Laws.
  - (9) SECRETARY-TREASURER shall be included when Secretary or Treasurer is mentioned.
  - (10) SINGULAR words shall include the plural where the context requires.
  - (11) STATUTORY HOLIDAY references those specific days during each year that have been declared as such by the Federal Government of Canada and are applicable in the Province of Ontario and includes those other additional specified days as declared by the Government of the Province of Ontario.
  - (12) TERM OF OFFICE shall commence on the 1st day of June and end on the 31st day of May in the following year, or if a two(2) year Term of Office, it shall end on the 31st day of May in the second following year. This Term of Office shall also apply to all Standing Committee Chairs with the exclusion of the Track and Field Chair whose Term of Office shall commence on the 1st day of August and end on the 31st day of July of the applicable Term of Office of the Branch. Any Term of Office may be extended, if necessary, with the authority of the Command.

901. (1) In the absence or disability of the President, unless there is a Branch Chair, the next senior Vice-President, who is available, shall act as the Presiding Officer at any Meeting, when necessary.
- (2) In the absence or disability of the President, Branch Chair, if applicable, and all Vice-Presidents, the Secretary shall call the Meeting to order, and a temporary Chair shall be elected for that Meeting.

902. The Presiding Officer of any Meeting shall rule out of order all matters pertaining to political or religious questions which do not refer to the well-being of the Legion.
903. The Presiding Officer of any Meeting shall enforce order and strict observance of these By-Laws, the Branch Regulations, and the General By-Laws of the Provincial and Dominion Commands.
904. The Presiding Officer shall have the right to decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal by the Meeting, of which the said appeal must be sustained by a majority vote of the voting Members present.
905. The Presiding Officer shall; when debate has ceased on any question; put same to an open vote, giving the words of the motion clearly so that no voting Member may misunderstand the question on which they are about to vote. In the event, however, that a majority of the voting Members present demand a secret ballot on any particular question, such question shall be decided by secret ballot.
906. A Member wishing to introduce a motion, or to speak, shall stand and wait until recognized by the Presiding Officer before speaking.
907. Business, upon which a Notice of Motion has not been given, may be taken up at a General Meeting but not at a Special General or Annual General Meeting.
908. Where business arises of which no Notice of Motion has been given, the Presiding Officer may, if such business is considered to be in the interests of the Branch, table to the next Meeting the debate on such business.
909. In all matters of procedure not provided for by these By-Laws or the Branch Regulations to these By-Laws, the provisions of the Legion's "Rules of Procedure for Legion Meetings" shall apply. In all cases where the aforementioned rules do not make adequate provision, then, and only then, shall the procedure be governed by the Rules of Order approved by Dominion Command.

ARTICLE X – NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

1001. The Branch shall hold an Election Meeting on a date and time as provided for by Branch Regulation and it may be held in conjunction with a General or Annual General Meeting.
1002. A nomination Meeting may be held prior to the date of the Election Meeting and may be held in conjunction with a General or an Annual General Meeting.
1003. (1) Nominations for Branch Offices shall be made from the floor at the Election Meeting immediately prior to the start of the Elections unless another provision listed herein is applicable.
- (a) If a Nomination Meeting is held prior to the date of the Election Meeting, Nominations may be re-opened immediately prior to the start of the Elections, if no advance poll is held.
- (b) If a Nominating Committee is established by the Branch, Nominations may be re-opened immediately prior to the start of the Elections, if no advance poll is held.
- (2) A list of all Nominees established in advance of the date of Elections shall be available for the information and use of the Branch at least one (1) week prior to the date of Elections.
1004. No voting Member may be nominated for an Office unless they are present or have signified in writing their willingness to accept such Office.

1005. The Branch, through a provision in the Branch Regulations, may hold an advance poll on the date of the Election Meeting.
1006. The voting for election of the President, Vice-Presidents, Executive Committee Members, and any other identified elected Office in the Branch Regulations shall be by ballot, except in the case of acclamation.
1007. In order to be elected to Office, a candidate must receive a majority of the total ballots cast and if there are more than two (2) candidates and no one receives the required majority, the candidate receiving the least number of votes shall be withdrawn from the election and the voting shall continue until one (1) candidate receives the required majority.
1008. The need for further nomination for subordinate Offices of all defeated candidates for President or Vice-President may be eliminated by a provision in the Branch Regulations.
1009. The voting for election of Branch Executive Committee Members shall be by ballot on a single vote unless there is a tie for the final position which will be decided through a further vote until there is a clear majority.
1010. The Chief Scrutineer shall report the results after each vote to the Election Chair.
1011. The Election Chair shall report to the Meeting the total ballots cast, the number of spoiled ballots, the successful candidate, or, if no candidate has received the required majority, the name of the candidate who received the least number of votes. The latter candidate shall be removed from the ballot and the voting shall continue.
1012. All polling at the Election Meeting shall be continuous and completed on the date of the Election Meeting. The Election Meeting shall not be adjourned to the next or subsequent days to permit further balloting.
1013. The installation ceremony applicable to those Offices identified in the current edition of the Ritual, Awards and Protocol Manual requiring installation, whether elected or appointed, must be completed prior to the Member formally assuming such Office.

ARTICLE XI – MEMBERSHIP DUES, FEES, AND LEVIES

1101. The fees and dues payable by Ordinary, Associate, Affiliate Voting, and Affiliate Non-Voting Members shall be as follows:
  - (1) An enrolment fee, which shall not exceed the actual cost associated with the materials supplied, may be created by a Branch Regulation, and assessed on each new Member to the Legion.
  - (2) The Annual Branch Dues, and any Enrolment Fees, shall be as determined by minutes adopted at a General Meeting held prior to the month of September. Such dues shall include per capita tax to the Commands.
1102. The dues shall become payable annually, in advance of January 1st in each calendar year. A Member in arrears as of January 31st of that year is not in good standing for any purpose. Once the yearly dues have been paid, the Member is considered “in good standing”.
1103. The Executive Committee shall have the power to levy an assessment on each and every Member of the Branch to meet any extraordinary expenditure in any year, provided that such expenditure has been approved by two-thirds of those voting Members present at any Special General Meeting called for the purpose of considering same and is in pursuance of the purposes and objects of the Legion.

ARTICLE XII – FINANCE

1201. (1) A Financial Review of all financial accounts of the Branch shall be completed by the party or parties identified in the Branch Regulations.
- (2) The party or parties completing the Financial Review need not be Chartered Accountants and may or may not be Members but shall not be Members of the Executive Committee of the Branch or employees of the Legion or organization thereof.
1202. The party or parties appointed by the President to complete the Financial Review shall be approved at a Meeting of the Branch designated by a Branch Regulation. They shall hold Office for one (1) year, unless dismissed by a Special General Meeting, which has been called for that purpose and of which notice shall have been given at the previous Meeting of the Branch and in the notice calling such Meeting.
1203. The Financial Review Report shall be submitted to the Executive Committee within ninety (90) days following the end of the fiscal year and then presented to the next General Meeting for approval.
1204. (1) The persons designated and authorized to initiate and complete any financial transaction from any account held by the Branch, including Poppy Trust Fund Accounts, shall be identified within the Branch Regulations by their respective Office or Position held in the Branch.
- (2) The persons so designated and authorized shall be any of the Branch Officers and may include any other person(s) designated by the Executive Committee.
- (3) Any such financial transaction shall only be initiated and completed upon the direct involvement of any two (2) of the designated and authorized persons who are not related by blood, marriage, or common-law relationship.
1205. (a) The Executive Committee may designate any regular and/or recurring payee to be included in the file maintained at the financial institution for the processing of automatic pre-authorized electronic funds transfers to such payee(s) upon presentation of such payment demand to the subject institution.
- (b) The payee(s) shall be restricted to those accounts payable on a regular and/or recurring basis in relation to any normal operating expenditure.
- (c) The Treasurer and Administrator (Financial Security Measures) shall be responsible for the maintenance and coordination of the permitted Payee(s) with the Branch's financial institution.
1206. (1) The Executive Committee shall be responsible for choosing and ensuring that the business package provided by their financial institution provides all of the elements to serve the needs of the Branch on a continued basis and that a Policy and Procedure is maintained re the subject matters.
- (2) The President shall appoint an Officer of the Branch, with the approval of the Executive Committee, to act as the Administrator (Financial Security Measures).
- (3) The Administrator (Financial Security Measures) shall be responsible for the supervision, integrity, and ongoing monitoring of the security measures provided by the financial institution along with any in house processes engaged by the Branch.

- (4) The Financial Security Measures may include, but are not restricted to, pass codes, personal identification numbers, security devices, and other similar mechanisms used by financial institutions and their clients.
  - (5) The Administrator (Financial Security Measures) shall ensure that only the designated and authorized persons permitted to initiate and complete financial transactions, as identified elsewhere in these By-Laws, are provided with the appropriate financial security mechanism to fulfill those duties.
  - (6) The Branch Administrator (Financial Security Measures) is an appointed officer of the Branch. It can be any member of the Branch including a Branch Executive member. It should not be the Treasurer, or any other signing authority, as this could be, or perceived to be, a conflict of interest.
1207. (1) All accounts payable by the Branch, in excess of one hundred dollars ($100.00) shall be paid by cheque, electronic funds transfer, credit card or debit card. When credit or debit cards are used, a signed requisition form with two authorized signatures will be required.
- (2) If such an account is payable on a regular and/or recurring basis and has been so designated by the Executive Committee, payment may be made by an automatic pre-authorized online withdrawal or by electronic fund transfer.
  - (3) Branch Regulations may provide for a lower monetary limit.
  - (4) No cheque shall be signed in blank.
1208. (1) All expenditures, other than normal operating or emergency expenses, in excess of an amount set out in Branch Regulations which may not exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000.00), must be approved at a General, Special General or Annual General Meeting, prior to any commitment for such expenditure being made by the Executive Committee.
- (2) Any expenditure, other than normal operating expenses, in excess of one thousand dollars ($1000.00), shall be referred to the Executive Committee for its recommendation to the next General Meeting, prior to any commitment for such expenditure being made by the Branch.
