

Mesquite residential construction company seeking highly motivated and skilled individual to join the team. Candidates must have construction experience, be able to lift heavy objects, provide own transportation, pass background and drug test. Hourly wage depends on experience. Position has opportunity to be promoted to project manager, foreman position. Position is full time to start.

Job Duties include:

- Framing
- Drywall
- Painting
- Tiling
- Installation of floor
- Trim work
- Demo & Haul away
- Site preparation and cleanup
- Pick-up and delivery of construction materials
- Prep construction sites and cleaning obstacles and hazards.
- Assure the work areas are clean, safe and organized
- Safely load and unload equipment and materials on job sites
- Safely operate hand and power tools, pumps, fusing machines, and electrical equipment
- Assist in maintaining orderliness of project site and/or trailer

Candidates should have the following characteristics

- Self-motivated with ability to following instructions accurately and efficiently
- High ethical and moral attitude
- Climb to heights and conduct work for inspections
- Ability to read and decipher construction plans are preferred but not required
- Ability to interact effectively and cooperatively with coworkers and clients
- Construction and or carpentry experience strongly preferred
- Work effectively to meet or exceed construction deadlines