KIDS' NONVIOLENT PROTEST AGAINST RACISM

Saturday, June 13, 9:00 a.m.

Please note this is not a festival, carnival or other entertainment activity. There will not be fun activities for kids. It is a protest. Additionally, this is NOT a protest that is meant to bash or attack police.

Purpose

This protest was not formed out of a desire to give our kids a civics lesson. It was formed out of the loss of our Black children's innocence. They brought the harsh reality of racism to us and they wanted answers. The question, "Why, mommy...?" rung all too loudly in our ears. Our children are hurt, angry, suffering and wounded, but most of all our children have had enough. Our children deserve and are demanding better. So, our children are making their Stand for Justice. We have dealt with racism, now our children are going to put an end to racism.

Racism in America is systemic and can only be dismantled by active engagement and rejection of it by all generations. As parents, we must show our children that their right to peacefully protest is just one of the many ways required to bring about sustainable change.

We find tremendous hope in the overwhelming response from families of every walk of life joining in with us and taking a stand for justice. It is our turn as parents to listen as our children lead us in a new direction.

Alexis Hart McDowell, Lead Program Mother

Tonya Primus, Lead Program Mother

Yvonne Blake, PRESIDENT
The Chicago Chapter
Jack and Jill of America, Inc.

Thank you for supporting the kids' protest movement. This protest is different from so many of the others sweeping our nation in that it features the voices of our children. In addition, it offers an opportunity to teach our young people what racism looks like and how they can fight against it. It empowers them and teaches them the power of action.

The Chicago Chapter of Jack and Jill stands for justice and equality. We are proud to sponsor this children's protest for the next generation of leaders. As the mom of two black sons I know the overwhelming desire to keep them safe, which causes me to try and control their every move. I also know the futility of my desire to keep them safe from racism. I can't, but WE CAN. Together we can change this world, so at least I only have to worry about regular teenage stuff. :)

To the young people of all ages assembled here, YOU are the heroes for this generation. The ones we've been waiting for, and history will remember that you were not silent. The next generation will remember you, as the ones who changed the world. I'm counting on it!

EVERY MAN OF HUMANE CONVICTIONS MUST DECIDE
ON THE PROTEST THAT BEST
SUITS HIS CONVICTIONS,
BUT WE MUST ALL PROTEST.

Jackson Glanton, TEEN PRESIDENT
The Chicago Chapter
Jack and Jill of America, Inc.

Hi. My name is Jackson Glanton, and I am the current Teen Group President of the Chicago Chapter of Jack and Jill, Inc. Even though I am hurt and saddened by WHY we must come together, I am so inspired by how many of us WANT to come together. We are the future, and we cannot let anyone deny us the ability to fully live it. It's time.

It's time for us to pick up the baton that generations before us have been running with for hundreds of years. It's time to show the world that we may be young, but we are prepared to fight for our rights as human beings. We don't say Black Lives Matter because others don't, we say it because there are people in this country who think OUR lives are worthless.

I just turned 16. I can get my driver's license now and have more freedom socially. Unfortunately, I will also have to watch my back every single time I leave my house. I will have to always be prepared for interactions with the police, even if I haven't done anything wrong. I will have to remember that the rules for every other ethnicity do not apply to me. Just like they didn't apply to my father when he turned 16 or my grandfather. It's time.

In 1963, Martin Luther King told the world that he dreamed that his children would be judged by the content of their character, not the color of their skin. In 2020, we are STILL fighting for that dream. Thank you for picking up the baton. There are so many ways we can make a difference. We are young, which means we are strong and our perspective is fresh. Let's take steps toward changing this world together because... it's time.

Be Safe,
Jackson Glanton

Keynote Speakers

Jarrett "JB" and Jaden "Jay" are dynamic, thought provoking, scholar-athletes & activists who challenge current thinking around Black youth & empowerment.

They took their stand for justice when they attended the Minneapolis protests to speak out against the murder of George Floyd and the normalization of systemic racism. They will share their transformative experience with us.

Racism is Wrong.

Racism is prejudice, discrimination, or antagonism directed against someone of a different race based on the belief that one's own race is superior.

An Activist is a person who works to bring about political or social change.

A Protest is a statement or action expressing disapproval of or objection to something.

There have been violent and non-violent protests throughout American history. Change can happen when people protest and their voices are heard.

Standing up for what is right is to defend or support a particular idea or a person who is being criticized or attacked:
We should all stand up for our rights.

I can help by standing up and not being a bystander.

NO-ONE IS BORN HATING ANOTHER PERSON BECAUSE OF THE COLOUR OF HIS SKIN, OR HIS BACKGROUND, OR HIS RELIGION. PEOPLE MUST LEARN TO HATE, AND IF THEY CAN LEARN HATE, THEY CAN BE TAUGHT LOVE, FOR LOVE COMES MORE NATURALLY TO THE HUMAN HEART THAN ITS OPPOSITE.

~ Nelson Mandela

Kids Stand Against Racism Pledge

- 1 I believe that every person is entitled to dignity and respect, regardless of race or color.
- 2 I believe that every thought and every act of racism is harmful; if it is my thought or act, or another person's words about someone else, then it is harmful to all of us.
- 3 I will discourage racism by others at every opportunity.
- 4 I will stand up and speak up against racism in my class, my school, my home and in my community. I will be an activist.
- 5 I will treat all people with dignity and respect; and I will strive daily to honor this pledge, knowing that the world will be a better place because of my effort.
- 6 Therefore, from this day forward, I pledge to Donate, March, Speak, Write, Read, Change, and Act against racism.
