

“

A Tapestry of Reminiscences, Rhymes and Recipes by Mrs. Aileen Quin Wietstruk offers a charming and multifaceted journey into a bygone era, weaving together personal history, poetic expression, and culinary delights. It is a heartfelt compilation that provides a unique glimpse into the author's life and heritage.

An account of post-World War II family life, and a brief history of the Quins of Dunraven. Beautiful poetry and examples of changing parenting styles, as well as authentic recipes for German cuisine and everyday fare, are included. The inclusion of “rhymes” adds a delightful and often poignant layer to the narrative. These poetic interludes serve as emotional reflections, capturing moments, feelings, and observations that complement the prose. The poetry is accessible and adds a personal touch, allowing readers to connect with the author's inner world.

Perhaps one of the most unique aspects of this book is the “recipes.” Far from being a mere afterthought, these authentic German cuisine recipes and everyday fare are deeply intertwined with the family's story. They offer a tangible connection to the Quin family's traditions and provide practical value for “novice chefs” and seasoned cooks alike. The recipes are presented in a clear, easy-to-follow manner, making them a true culinary treasure.

— Tyra Perry, Independent Reviewer

”

