

“

A Tapestry of Reminiscences, Rhymes and Recipes is a charming and unique book by Mrs. Aileen Quin Wietstruk that combines memoir, poetry, and a family cookbook. The book weaves together personal stories with heartfelt rhymes and authentic German recipes, offering readers a rich look into a past era. The poems aren't just decorative; they add an emotional layer to the anecdotes, while the recipes serve as a tangible link to the Quin family's heritage. With clear instructions for both experienced and novice cooks, this book is an invitation to explore personal history, poetry, and culinary tradition.

It is a delightful and multi-layered book that goes beyond a simple memoir. It blends personal history with heartfelt poetry and a collection of authentic German recipes. The poems act as emotional reflections on the stories, while the recipes are a genuine continuation of the family's legacy.

What makes the book truly special is its accessibility; Wietstruk includes “everyday fare for novice chefs,” making it easy for anyone to dive into her family's culinary traditions. This book is a true treasure for anyone who enjoys history, poetry, or cooking.

— Josie Vladimir, Independent Reviewer

”

