

Code of Conduct

This is a women's league to encourage competitive, friendly play. As such, a level of decorum is expected of all players. Aggressive or abusive behavior toward another player (including swearing, throwing paddles, or negative comments aimed at causing harm) may warrant suspension or removal from the league.

If there is an issue with a player, the team captain is responsible for bringing it to the attention of the league leader who will try to resolve the issue. If needed, the league leader will ask the president to resolve the issue. In the case of any conflicts between teams during a match, the captains must immediately bring it to the president's attention.

In addition, any player openly expressing disdain or campaigning against the league may be suspended or removed from the league.

NOTE: All players must read and agree to abide by the Code of Conduct before participating in any league matches

Updated 12/15/24