"God has blessed each of us with unique gifts, talents, and opportunities. Jesus shares the Parable of the Talents in the Gospel of Mtt 25:14-30, reminding us that what matters is not how much we have been given, but how faithfully we use what God has entrusted to us. Sometimes, out of fear, insecurity, or a lack of confidence, we bury our gifts rather than share them. We may think we have little to offer, or that our contributions will not make much difference. But God does not ask us to be perfect; He asks us to be faithful. Our talents are not meant to be kept to ourselves. They are meant to be shared through acts of kindness, generosity, compassion, service, and love. A simple gesture, a helping hand, a listening ear, or a word of encouragement can become a beautiful expression of God's love in the world." Anonymous.
