“ He promises to “give rest,” which means more than just taking a break. It’s about a deep, refreshing peace that soothes our souls and helps us feel renewed. This rest isn’t only physical; it’s divine renewal—God’s gift that eases the burdens on our hearts and minds. Jesus’ offer of rest is for everyone, regardless of our past or the struggles we face. His call is open to all who are tired, inviting us into a relationship filled with grace, humility, and love.” Dan Hall.
