Raymond Redd
music and lyrics by: Allen Brooks

Do you remember when
We would meet
Before and after school

Do you remember when
We were young
We lived by our own rules

Do you remember when
We ran away
We thought we were so cool

I wish we could go back
And do the things
The things we used to do

Don't ever hesitate to
Don't ever look behind you
Don't make that big mistake
Just keep on pushing through

Don't try and read between the lines
Cause you'll never understand
What was really meant
But never said between us

Because you never took the time to
To give me all the space I needed
If you had just trusted me
Our love would still be strong

Do you remember when
Raymond Redd
He lived next door to me

That night he cut his hands
Gladys called
As he began to bleed

Been more than 20 years
Still fight the tears
The tears of yesterday

And all the future still
It still remains
Until my dying day

Don't ever hesitate to
Don't ever look behind you
Don't make that big mistake
Just keep on pushing through

Don't try and read between the lines
What was really meant
But never said between us

Because you never took the time to
To give me all the space I needed
If you had just trusted me

KAZOO SOLO

Don't ever hesitate to

Don't try and read between the lines
What weas really meant

Because you never took the time to
To give me all the space I needed
If you had just trusted me

Do you remember when
We grew old
While we were holding hands

Do you remember when
We were told
We shouldn't be best friends

This world It has it's ways
We're here today
It's out of my control

I've got one thing to say
I'm on my way
I'm finally coming home
