SoulBloom & SoulBlossom for Kids by SoulTech

Healing, Empowerment, and Conscious Wellness for Underserved Communities

At the heart of the SoulTech Foundation's mission is a commitment to making transformative mind-body-soul wellness accessible to all people—not just the privileged few. That's why we created SoulBloom and SoulBlossom for Kids, our signature outreach programs designed specifically for underserved adults and children facing socioeconomic, emotional, or systemic challenges.

These one-day, trauma-informed wellness retreats bring the life-changing tools of yoga, meditation, emotional mastery, and self-love to those who rarely have access. From inner cities to forgotten communities, we create healing sanctuaries where participants can feel safe, supported, and empowered to grow.

Benefiting The SoulTech Foundation

The SoulTech Foundation exists to ignite a global movement toward conscious, holistic living. Through transformative wellness centers, immersive community experiences, and a dynamic digital platform, we teach the practices and principles that elevate human potential, like yoga, meditation, and spiritual alignment. Our mission is to empower individuals to access higher states of being and create lives filled with peace, purpose, and joy.

We are delighted to launch our first community programs for underserved communities Fall 2025, SoulBloom and SoulBlossom for Kids this Fall 2025. These programs teach yoga, meditation, healing, self-love and emotional mastery in our more financially challenged communities.

Help us help others by attending, sponsoring or showing at the SoulTech Future Festival.
