The Crooksville-Roseville Pottery Festival Returns

Crooksville, OH ---- The 55th Crooksville-Roseville Pottery Festival will be held July 15 – 17, 2021 at the Crooksville Village Park

Due to COVID restrictions put in place by the State of Ohio and the CDC last year, the Crooksville-Roseville Pottery Festival committee decided to cancel the 2020 Crooksville-Roseville Pottery Festival in respect of the safety of the many visitors expected. The annual celebration of the Crooksville and Roseville area's heritage has been a tradition since 1964. The 2020 Pottery Festival was to be the 55th festival.

The official start of the Pottery Festival will have a new location this year. The Clay Center of Ohio will hold the Plate Breaking and Plate Auction on the Main Stage on the Pottery Festival grounds instead of the Clay Center on Thursday, July 15 at Noon.

With the extra year to plan, the committee was able to triple the number of attractions, entertainment and pottery activities as well as bring back some old-time favorites. This year's Pottery Festival will see the return of Pottery Tours, Pottery Pitch, Pottery Demonstrations, Amusement Rides and Kids Games just to name a few. The Pottery Festival will be climbing to new heights in 2021 with Helicopter rides on Saturday, weather permitting. Also new this year is a Cornhole Tournament.

The Pottery Festival committee and proud sponsors would like to invite you to attend the 55th Crooksville-Roseville Pottery Festival. Information on all activities can be found on the Facebook page, The Crooksville-Roseville Pottery Festival or at potteryfestival.org
