As a member of the Chester County community you know the importance of being a good neighbor. The Knights of Columbus is a non-profit organization dedicated to service in performing charitable works in our communities primarily for our Veterans, Churches, schools and other local community service groups.

We are asking for your support by sponsoring our upcoming "John Mattis Memorial Car Show" to be held June 11, 2022 at Coatesville VA Medical Center in Coatesville, Pa. from 10am until 1pm. There will be three levels of sponsorship available. Sponsorships can also be daily clothing items that will be donated to the VA Voluntary Service Program. These items include T-shirts, crew socks, briefs, etc. for both men and women, all items must be new. Your sponsorship will be posted on our sponsor board. All attendees will receive a flyer with your information along with other participating sponsors, and will be encouraged to patronize your establishment and/or seek your services.
