World Meeting of Families: MEMORY OF A LIFETIME The World Meeting of Families, highlighted by the visit from Pope Francis September 26-27, 2015, was a super success. Eight of our Sir Knights, who attended the Opening Mass, were invited to serve as Eucharistic Assistants at Sunday's Closing Mass. Also, assisting, on the altar, was one of our Seminarians! Brother David O'Brien, St Peter Council, was selected to be an altar server for Pope Francis, following our Holy Father's stay at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary.

Michael Keating: Private meeting with Pope Francis! Last year, Michael (10 yrs old) received his 1st Communion, intravenously, at St Peter while the Knights stood by, enthusiastically. Saturday morning, at Phila International Airport, Chuck Keating, the family's patriarch, directed the Bishop Shanahan High School marching band to play music for the Holy Father. — As soon as Pope Francis saw the boy, sitting in a wheel chair, he said "Stop the Car", quickly approached Michael, and greeted him.

300 Club Tickets Available: All Knights are requested to purchase one $20 ticket. Only 300 tickets will be sold, three chances to win prizes amounting from $25 to $1,000. There will be three drawings as follows: 10/27, 11/24, 12/07. Please contact PFN Admiral Joe Mitri for tickets, do8367dy@gmail.com or call 610-613-6344
