Description of Trip

Join us on a wonderful cruise beginning in Boston, Massachusetts, traveling up the east coast with a stop in Rockland, Maine, known as the lobster capital of the world; then sail on to Halifax, Nova Scotia, known as the "City of Trees," with its extensive network of walking trails and vibrant gardens. The next stop is Sydney, Nova Scotia, on the Northeast coast of Cape Breton Island, known for the largest historical reconstruction in North America, local arts and crafts and abundant fresh seafood. On day six we will spend two days in Quebec City, Quebec, settled in 1535 by France. It is one of North America's oldest and most beautiful cities. You can visit the Old Town, a UNESCO site, the LaChateau Frontenac, and the Cathedral-Basilica of Notre Dame de Quebec. The city is full of many museums, European charm and historic architecture, along with many shops and boutiques. Day nine we visit Charlottetown, PEI, on the south shore of Prince Edward Island, known for its many beautiful natural settings and local mussels. Next we sail to Bar Harbor, Maine, located on Mount Desert Island which was once housed by the Rockefellers, Vanderbilts and Carnegies to name a few. One can visit the Acadia National Park which has a network of hiking trails and beautiful views of the Atlantic. Then we travel back to Boston, arriving early enough to perhaps visit the Old Corner Bookstore, Paul Revere's House, a museum of fine art, Samuel Adams Brewery and enjoy all types of fresh seafood.
