Description of Trip

Join us on a wonderful Adriatic Cruise leaving Venice, Italy, Cruising Greek Islands and Sicily, ending in Rome, Italy.

Ports of Call: Venice, Italy. Take a Gondola ride and visit the famous San Marco Cathedral for an eyeful of giltwork and divine frescoes. Next, sail to Split, Croatia and visit the white limestone palace of Diocletian, a famous historical site and enjoy the unique cuisine along the Dalmation coast. Then on to Argostoli, Greece, on the Island of Kephallonia with beautiful Venetian buildings and harbors. Visit the St. George Castle, Drogarativ cave and enjoy the abundant shopping along the harbor. Souda, (Chania), Greece, the largest city of Crete, is the next stop. The island has white mountains, sandy beaches, caves, rivers, and lush plains. Stroll through Old Town to sample local foods and cheeses. On to Rhodes, Greece, to visit the beautiful Golden Beaches and archaeological sites. This ancient city was designed by Hippodamus of Miletus. Many shops, restaurants and pebbly beaches, as well as, the Monolithos Castle. Kusadias (Ephesus), Turkey, was believed to be the home of the Virgin Mary in later life and that St. John wrote the gospel here. YOU have the Site of the The Temple of Artemis, one of the seven wonders of the world. Take a turkish bath if you like. Sailing on to Valetta, Malta, the largest natural harbor in all of Europe. Well know for food, wine bars, unique cafes and St. John's Cathedral with ancient paintings and artifacts. Mgarr (Victoria), Malta, offers a rich agricultural city with the Gnejna Bay lines with boat houses and Ghajn Tuffieha, a villa with thermal Roma baths. Next we sail to Palermo, Sicily, Italy, capital of Sicily, the largest Island in the Mediterranean. Enjoy the art, Medieval History, street foods, and local art. Naples, Italy,
