Beaver Creek Colorado is a favorite ski destination of the Pensacola Ski Club - now called the Pensacola Ski & Travel Club. We are returning to Beaver because Epic Pass is offering a really sweet deal this coming season honoring military, retired military, and veterans. If you chose to purchase your own Epic

Pass, you can subtract $600 from the published trip price. BTW, that is Annie - part of the Beaver Creek Ski Patrol Search and Rescue.

With a single lift ticket you can experience European-style Village to Village skiing and snowboarding between the villages of Beaver Creek, Bachelor Gulch, and Arrowhead. A network of 24 ski lifts, 150 named trails and 1832 acres of skiable terrain gives you access to freshly groomed cruising runs, challenging moguls, steep chutes, soft powder, and gladed terrain. The level of difficulty of the slopes ranges from 34% easy, 39% more difficult, and 27% most difficult.

The resort also offers a host of other skiing options such as cross-country skiing and snowshoeing at McCoy Park, dog sledding the White River National Forest, starlit snow-cat sleigh ride to Beano's Cabin for a memorable six-course dinner. Visit the resort at: www.beavercreek.com
