ZERMATT

In southern Switzerland, is a mountain resort renowned for skiing, climbing and hiking. The town, at an elevation of around 5,000 feet, lies below the iconic, pyramid-shaped Matterhorn peak. Its main street, Bahnhofstrasse is lined with boutique shops, hotels and restaurants, and also has a lively apres-ski scene. There are public outdoor rinks for ice-skating, curling and tubing parks.

PRAGUE

The capital city of the Czech Republic, is bisected by the Vitava River, Nicknamed the City of a Hundred Spires, it's known for the Old Town
