

The Agile Onion

New Start-up Exercise

What is the Agile Onion?

Adapted image from Agile Onion by AWA, Simon Powers

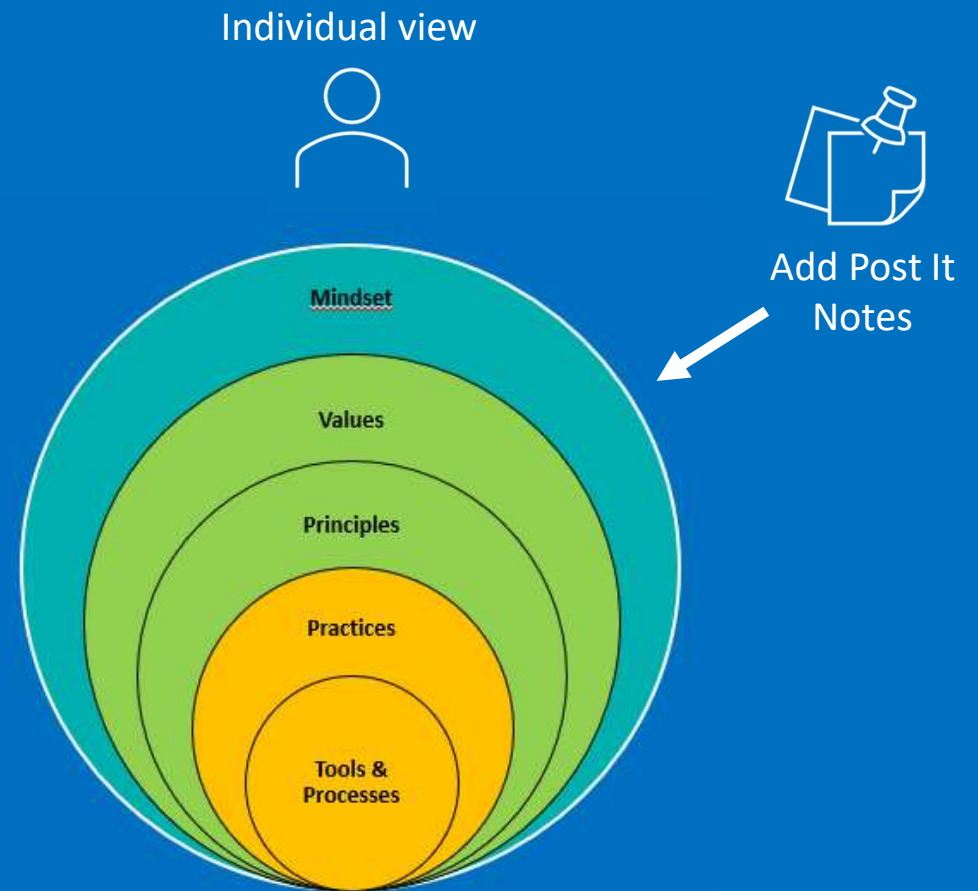

What does your company need to think about in these areas to grow?

Exercise (1-2-4-all)

On you own.

Add sticky notes to the agile onion for areas your company needs to think about to grow.

Time – 2 minutes

Exercise (1-2-4-all)

Find a partner to make a pair.

Discuss each others sticky notes.

Remove any duplicates.

Agree sticky notes to keep and create a new agile onion view.

Time – 4 minutes

Individual view

Individual view

New pair view

Exercise (1-2-4-all)

Find another pair to make a group of 4.

Discuss each others sticky notes.

Remove any duplicates.

Agree sticky notes to keep and create a new agile onion view.

Time – 8 minutes

Exercise (1-2-4-all)

Each group to feedback.

Remove any duplicates.

Agree sticky notes to keep and create a new agile onion view.

Time – 15 minutes

The final group view

Now you have a final view of the first steps and ideas to growing your organisations in line with the Agile Onion.

Next Steps

Take the information from this session to as a team to work out the actions you want to take and assign owners.

Thank you