

L/BOOGIE PRODUCTIONS

WHO ARE WE?

We are a special event company that specializes in producing celebrations, concerts and VIP events both domestically and internationally. We are known for our exceptional service and seamless logistics management. We believe in a collaborative approach, walking you through the planning process with ease, offering full planning, coordination, and management. Our event coordination packages include venue selection, budget management, vendor contracts and negotiations, design and decor, entertainment booking, VIP management, transportation, logistics, on-site staffing, and more.

WHAT WE DO?

We create experiences that are distinct and unforgettable. We nurture key relationships such as business-to-business opportunities with venues, community leaders, and companies from around the country to offer our clients and their audiences a quality experience.

HOW CAN WE HELP YOU?

LB Productions sees boundless opportunity in helping achieve great quality experiences for our clients and their guests. We have a successful track record of architecting and executing business oriented production solutions via Live Experiences, Hospitality, Sport and Entertainment.

WHAT MAKES US UNIQUE AND ADD VALUE?

Customers attention spans are rapidly shortening, so we believe investing into real-time and live experiences are what differentiate us from other production companies. We provide an authentic and meaningful interaction through live production with a premium experience. In order to provide these quality experiences to our client, we are fully focused on creatively and strategically producing this unique service with nothing less than excellence.
