Our Philosophy

The good life doesn't need to be extravagant; it's about embracing the fabric of lived experiences and cherishing those 'in-the-moment' moments.

Life Aficionados is the guiding philosophy behind Wandering With L&O. We believe the most meaningful journeys are built through presence, curiosity, and connection — whether across the globe or at home.

Who We Are

Rooted in a small town and reaching for the world, Wandering With L&O was born from second chances and a shared love of culture, travel, and storytelling. After long careers and personal loss, we chose a life of exploration — rediscovering joy through art, food, music, and movement.

- Thoughtful travel storytelling
- Cultural experiences and local narratives
- Everyday luxury and intentional living
- Editorial imagery and narrative-led video

Collaborations

We collaborate with destinations, hospitality groups, cultural institutions, and brands that value authenticity, care, and storytelling over trends.

- Sponsored storytelling & Reels
- Travel and destination features
- Hospitality and cultural experiences
- Long-term brand partnerships
