Global Partners Highlight

Leif and Jami Gustafson
Central Asia

Leif and Jami Gustafson are living and working in Central Asia with their children Anneka, Ella, and Ike. They are on work visas as teachers at an international school and are building relationships in neighboring countries as well as with local brothers and sisters, plus providing leadership to their organization's team in the area.

They are active in helping lead small groups to share God's word with unbelievers and the new church they helped to plant is growing with new believers particularly among young people.

Their prayer is to see a movement of disciple makers among the unreached people groups of Central Asia as well as the Buryats of Siberia, among whom they lived and worked for 16 years.

This fall, pray especially that as Anneka begins to study biology at the University of Washington that she will find a church and campus ministry to give her support and ways to serve.

PERSPECTIVES CLASS

CCC will be hosting the world-famous PERSPECTIVES class this year for the West Plains area. This is an exciting opportunity to reach out to those who want to explore different aspects of God's global purpose in a multi-faceted learning experience.

This is far beyond missions as we know it; it is an opportunity to widen your perspective of God at work in the world around you!

The class meets at 6:30pm on Tuesday nights from Sept 8-Jan 19 with breaks for the holidays. The cost of the class is $275. Our CCC Global Partner committee is offering $100 to anyone from our church to offset the cost. See Carla Hein for details (443- 221-3064)

Find out more about this year's class and Perspectives at www.perspectives.org You can also talk with Steve King (509-828-5805) and flyers are in the lobby on the information table.

You are invited to a social gathering at the home of Pastor Stan and Deana Hughes on Saturday, August 15, from 2 to 5 p.m.

Feel free to come and go as your schedule allows. This is a time to just meet and socialize with others in our church family.

Please RSVP via text to 509-240-4006.
