James 3.13-18 The Trial of Wisdom

Questions for reflection and further study

Read James 3:13-18

1. Who is someone that you consider to be wise?
  - a. Why do you consider them to be wise?
  - b. Does this person reflect James' definition of wisdom in 3:13?
2. James defines wisdom from above and wisdom from below. He shows the heart motivations and outcomes for each. What are the motivations and outcomes for each type of wisdom?
  - a. Wisdom from below (3:16).
  - b. Wisdom from above (3:17-18)
3. Take time to consider your heart motivations in a current struggle, do they align with the wisdom from above or wisdom from below?
4. In your relationships with others do you have a pattern of disorder or peacemaking?
5. How does the meekness of Christ (Matthew 11:28-30) and his peacemaking work on the cross (Colossians 1:18-22) affect your desire to depart from the wisdom from below and pursue the wisdom from above?
