Global Partner Spotlight: Summer Camps

The Global Partner focus for this month is Summer Camps. We are highlighting this for two reasons: 1) some summer camps are actually for training in missions; and 2) our committee was asked to oversee the distribution of the Busby Camp fund which exists to provide scholarships for kids going to camp.

We are promoting three different camps for this summer and want to introduce them to you in time for you to consider them for your child. First of all, AWANA has a week-long summer camp in August for those clubbers who are progressing in their handbook and are entering grade 4 or above in the fall. Awana leadership will be advising your students about this, but if funding is an issue, please contact our committee for a scholarship application form.

Second, Cocolalla Lake Bible Camp is nearby in Idaho and holds several sessions of camp for varying ages of students throughout the summer (brochures are in the lobby along with scholarship application forms).

Finally, Child Evangelism Fellowship hosts a week-long training camp each summer. Attendance is by invitation from Grace Doornink, our local CEF representative. Several students from our church will be traveling to Auburn in June and learning how to share the gospel with children. After they return, they will assist in putting on 5-day clubs throughout the Spokane area.

REMEMBER to check the Global Partner notebook in the lobby below the world map. New updates on ALL of our partners are added monthly!
