Jim & Bev VanMersbergen

AWANA Missionaries

Jim and Bev VanMersbergen live in Spokane and serve as missionaries with AWANA, a Bible-based program for children ages 2 - 18.

AWANA stands for "Approved Workmen Are Not Ashamed" (2 Timothy 2:15) and their goal is to reach children with the gospel of Christ and train them to serve Him.

For over 30 years, Jim and Bev have served the Northwest Region where Jim is Regional Director. They oversee ministry in 90 churches across the area where they equip, train, and encourage leaders to be as effective in their Awana ministry as possible.

They also coordinate special annual events —Games Tournament; a week-long Summer Camp, Fall Ministry Conferences and Bible-quizzing, hosted by CCC.

Their prayer is for God's wisdom and to be faithful in what He gives them to do.

Since 2001 Cheney Community Church has participated in the Awana Ministry — pray for our club here, that we would see lives changed for eternity.

THE POWER OF A SIMPLE GIFT

Each child is invited to an event where the Gospel is preached and then the shoeboxes are handed out to them. Each shoebox is a missionary - and tangible example of God's Love and Provision.

Our shoeboxes are available now. You can pick up one (or more) from the platform. Information and mailing labels are included in the boxes. For more information, text or call Smitty or Mickey Smith 509-499-6447.

If you are involved in ministry here at the church, CCC is offering a free CPR/AED and first aid course on Saturday, October 17th . The course would run 8am-noon.

Rather you are new to CPR/AED and first aid skills or, maybe you are ready to recertify, you are welcome to come and be AHA certified (two years).

The course will be offered to other interested people at other times throughout the upcoming year.

Please contact Pam if you are interested in the course. We are looking for a minimum of four.
