David and Bethlehem Beck
YWAM-Northern Ireland

April is a SPECIAL PROJECT:

David and Beth (Low) Beck are missionaries with Youth with a Mission. Beth spent some of her childhood right here at CCC. When God called her into YWAM, she ended up at the base in N Ireland where she met and married David.

They have continued together with YWAM doing their peacebuilding and discipleship work in Northern Ireland; helping to run training schools, discipling young people and taking part in international outreaches. Their future holds many new ministry opportunities and they would love your prayers for the season of transition ahead.

"I wasn't God's first choice for what I've done for China...I don't know who it was...It must have been a man...a well-educated man. I don't know what happened. Perhaps he died. Perhaps he wasn't willing...And God looked down...and saw Gladys Aylward...And God said - 'Well, she's willing.'"

Thanks to all who came out on a slightly rainy Saturday morning to clean our town. Your hard work was much appreciated by the City and its residents.

*Not many should gather the mantle of speech,
for the tongue is a spark in a forest of reach—
a small, restless flame in the cavern of breath
that kindles both blessing and whispers of death.*

*We bridle the horse with a whisper of rein,
and ships bend their will through the wind and the rain;
so too does the tongue, though little its frame,
steer hearts into ruin or kindle a flame.*

*It flickers with worlds both bitter and sweet,
with curses and kindness that strangely both meet;
from one hidden spring, from one trembling source,
flows mercy and malice along the same course.*

*Can fig trees bear olives? Can salt waters bless with sweetness unbroken, with life in excess?
No—roots tell the truth that the branches display,
and what fills the heart finds its voice in the day.*

*So guard well the fire that dances inside,
let wisdom be wind and let mercy be guide;
for the tongue, though small, holds the power to be a harbor of peace—or a burning sea.*
