Vice President's Message

By Sally K. Chenault

Jeff Bean, the Stanislaus County Bar Association ("SCBA") president, is on vacation so I am filling in – beware Jeff, when the cat is away the mice do play.

We are already through the first half of 2014, having provided eleven (11) lunch hour MCLE classes on a variety of pertinent topics. I would like to thank the members of the legal community who have offered to give their time for these classes. It has been busy. We hope it gets even busier. Please volunteer your time and skills to this worthwhile educational exchange.

The annual Law Day Luncheon this year was held at the Gallo Center for the Arts on May 2, 2014. The President of the California Bar Association, Luis Rodriguez, honored our bar association by giving the keynote speech. The Law Day theme was "Why Every Vote Matters." The Liberty Bell Award recipient for 2014 is Thomas Ciccarelli, the Executive Director of the Stanislaus Family Justice Center. As a result of the generous support of our local bar association members, the SCBA again was able to provide scholarships to two local high school graduates who intend to enter the legal field. A third local high school graduate received the Modesto 500 Lions 'John Grisez Memorial' Scholarship.

On May 31, 2014, the Stanislaus County legal community swung away at the 27th Anniversary of the Annual SCBA Golf Tournament. We had perfect weather for once and, as always, good food, beverages and competition. The college scholarships presented at the Law Day Luncheon are funded almost entirely from the golf tournament sponsorships donated by our legal community. We thank these sponsors, all thirty-three (33). Please check them out on the SCBA website, found as a link on our home page. Thank you also to the Bar Association's Golf Committee Jeff Mangar, Robert Farrace, George Rodarakis, Mike Dennis and last but not least, the leader of the pack, Keris Cushing.

Judge Robert Westbrook was honored at the New Judge's Lunch on June 6, 2014. The Honorable Judge Robert Westbrook, of course, is no longer a new Judge. We were hoping additional judicial vacancies would be filled before we held the New Judge's Lunch but we waited and waited, like we're waiting for rain. It was a delightful event in the Galletto's patio. We congratulate the Honorable Judge Westbrook and look forward to his many years on the bench.

Mark your calendars now for a spectacular event to be held on Thursday, October 16, 2014. The annual Bench-Bar Dinner this year is hosting one of the original Little Rock Nine, Melba Beals, in honor of the 60th anniversary of Brown v. Board of Education. The event will be held at the Martin G. Petersen Event Center, 720 Twelfth Street, Modesto, CA at 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Concetta's is catering the dinner. We have secured Ms. Beals as our speaker as a result, again, of sponsors in our community. Ms. Beals is a historical figure. She has agreed to answer questions from the audience after her presentation. The SCBA is seeking additional sponsors to cover the remaining expenses of this very special event. Please contact me or the SCBA Executive Director if you are interested in sponsoring Ms. Beals coming to Modesto to give us a piece of history.

For those who have not visited the SCBA website at stanbar.org, please take a moment to review the services and information available to you as members. We are constantly updating and adding to what we offer to the legal community. For those who would like to contribute information or to advertise on the website, or if you have suggestions on how we can better meet your needs through the SBCA website, please contact the SCBA Executive Director.

The next six months will bring additional MCLE classes, the "of-substance" Bench-Bar Dinner, the Holiday Lunch and the Judicial Calendar Lunch. If you are not yet a member or if you are a former member, I hope you will consider joining (or rejoining) our association. We need you. For those of you who are members, thank you for your unwavering support.

LAWYER’S REFERRAL SERVICE

- Are you willing to support your local Bar Association?
- Are you looking for new clients?
- Are you willing to provide some pro bono time?

If you answer “YES” to the above, please consider serving on the LRS panel.

As an SCBA member, you only pay a $50 annual LRS panel fee!

Simple appointment process: LRS representative will schedule appointments with your office at your convenience with clients who have a matter in your area(s) of expertise. The client pays a $50.00 administrative fee to us over the phone, for a 30-minute consultation. Each month you will receive a statement from the LRS listing your appointments for that month. All you do is indicate the LRS clients who kept their appointments (and those that did not), and send the statement back to the LRS office.

If the client retains you, any further attorney’s fees are entirely yours!

For more information, call the LRS at (209) 571-5729 or go to stanbar.org

FROM THE LAW LIBRARY...

One of the most often requested resources at the Law Library is access to motions, briefs, and appeals from other jurisdictions. Your Law Library recently restructured their Westlaw access and as part of the package, gained access to Westlaw's "Briefs Multibase." This brief bank includes selected merit briefs and petitions filed in the California Supreme Court and California Appellate Courts. You can also access federal briefs from both the United States Supreme Court and the Ninth Circuit. These briefs are typically used to see how other attorneys analyzed and argued issues similar to your client's matter or how opposing counsel argued against them. Additionally, analyzing briefs will allow you to develop a better understanding of arguments made in key precedential cases so that you can better analogize or distinguish your case. Know what wins before you argue it!

The Law Library is your FREE resource to get the information you need to represent your client. We love to see familiar faces, but perhaps the only thing we love more than that is meeting new legal practitioners that can benefit from the services the Law Library offers. If you haven't been in lately, we've remodeled our conference rooms, updated our technology center and increased our wireless security by installing an attorney only network. Please review our website, www.stanlaw.org, to view all our other resources, and always feel free to call us if you have any questions. (209)558-7759.

The Stanislaus County Legal Professionals Association held its 69th Annual Installation of Officers on April 9, 2014. Loretta Rieb, PLS, CCLS, served as Mistress of Ceremonies and Installing Officer for the event. The following members were installed for the 2014-2015 term: Linda Fischer, CCLS, President; Janice Williams, CCLS, Vice President; Janice Schmidt, Secretary; Jan Trine, Treasurer; Stacie Velasco, CCLS, Executive Advisor; and Diane Mecca, Governor.
