Chemtex International Selects Sec-Ops Proposal for security guard services in Corpus Christi, Texas.

Corpus Christi, TEXAS—February 23rd, 2017—Sec-Ops Inc. announced that they were awarded the security guard contract commencing on March 6th 2017 by the President of Chemtex International for the Jumbo Project. The President stated Sec-Ops was selected based on their proven performance record, client references and operational security expertise at the Port for this important contract.

The Sec-Ops team of experienced guard force personnel commenced services early on 02 March supporting the security mission of the Chemtex Plant on the Port of Corpus Christi. The Chemtex Jumbo project is in the Foreign Trade Zone of the Port which increases the security mission of the facility. Sec-Ops will work closely with the Port law enforcement officials to meet all security requirements.

The Security mission encompasses the support safeguarding the facility, staff, and support personnel of the facility. Sec-Ops was quoted; “We are honored to be selected by Chemtex to participate in this important security mission. We are proud to be working with the President, Safety Director, contracting staff and personnel of Chemtex and we are confident that the experience and capability we have developed over our decade of service will ensure success for this important contract.” says Robert Lott – President, Sec-Ops, Inc.
