Kingdom Pillars serves women 18-25 yrs. old that have been involved with CPS (fostered, adopted, kinship care, Bridges) and also those that have been sex trafficked.
 We provide an 8500 sq. ft home on close to 8 acres for them to live, heal and grow for up to 2 yrs.
 We help them finish high school if needed, or further their educational goals
 We as a team work to teach the life skills needed to be a successful part of society
 We help these women develop in 4 program areas: Awareness, Authenticity, Alignment, and Action.

We work from 3 Program Pillars:
 Individual Development - Mental Health, Life Skills, Parenting
 Relationship Building - Safety, Building Trust, Mentoring
 Increasing Independence - Education/Career, Dependable Housing

STOP HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Wednesday July 30th is World Day Against Human Trafficking

Every year, millions of people around the globe become victims of human trafficking—one of the most pressing human rights issues of our time. World Day against Trafficking in Persons is observed to raise awareness, encourage action, and promote the protection of victims. In 2025, this important awareness day provides a renewed opportunity for communities and individuals to stand together and make a difference.

Why is World Day against Trafficking in Persons 2025 Important?

Human trafficking affects every country and community, with millions of men, women, and children exploited for forced labor, sexual exploitation, and other forms of abuse. Recognizing this day is crucial for shining a light on the issue, supporting survivors, and calling for stronger international cooperation. By raising awareness, World Day against Trafficking in Persons 2025 helps challenge misconceptions, drive policy change, and inspire collective action to protect vulnerable individuals.

Traffickers often exhibit the following behaviors:

- Makes the victim feel responsible for her financial matters
- Encourages inappropriate sexual behavior
- Pushy and/or demanding about sex
- Jealous, controlling and/or violent
- Makes promises often sounding too good to be true
- Significantly older than their female company
- Encourages victims to engage in illegal activities to achieve their dreams and goals
- Is very vague about his/her profession

Strong Tower helps restore hope and a future for young women who have aged out of foster care and/or been trafficked.

We provide the people who help each woman create a path forward and will also be is a place to call home. Currently, we come alongside Central Ohio women, ages 18-25. We provide compassion, mentoring, counseling resources, so they are not alone as they heal and find a victorious path forward.

Please consider becoming a monthly partner with Kingdom Pillars, your monthly financial gift will help us carry out the mission of supporting the women we serve daily that reside at the Strongtower home. You can set up your monthly gift at kpstrongtower.org
